MEDIA POLICIES

SEC CREDENTIAL POLICY

By accepting or using a media credential ("Credential") for access to any game or athletic contest sponsored or hosted by the Southeastern Conference (the "SEC") or by any one or more of its member institutions (herein an "Event" or the "Events") each person and entity issued such a Credential (herein referred to, along with the employer of each such person, collectively as a "Bearer") agrees to the following terms and conditions:

GENERAL

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The Credential is not transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of the Credential subjects the Bearer to ejection from the Event.

While within the Event venue, Bearer shall, at all times, adhere to the policies in place for the Event, abide by and respect access limitations, and accept and follow directions provided by the SEC or the SEC member institution(s) hosting the Event.

Bearer assumes all risks incidental to the performance by the Bearer of Bearer's services in connection with the Event and assumes all risks incidental to each Event, whether occurring before, during or after the actual playing of the Event, and agrees that the SEC, its member institutions, and their respective agents, employees, directors, officers, student-athletes, coaches, and contractors shall not be liable for bodily injury, property damage or theft losses suffered or incurred by Bearer at the Event. Bearer understands that sports contests are physical, and that in the normal course of play it is possible for balls, players, or other objects to leave the court, track, course, or field of play and impact spectators. Bearer hereby waives and releases any and all Claims (as defined below) against the SEC and its member institutions arising directly or indirectly from any such injury, including those attributable to their negligence or that of their agents.

In the event that the name or likeness of Bearer is included in any broadcast, telecast, photograph, film, video or other media taken in connection with any Event, Bearer grants the SEC (or, if the media is controlled by a SEC member, grants such SEC member) the nonexclusive, transferable, perpetual right and license to use (and to sub-license the use of) such name and likeness in any media worldwide whether now known or thereafter devised.

Bearer agrees to indemnify and save harmless the SEC, its member institutions, and their respective agents, employees, directors, officers, student-athletes, coaches, and contractors, of and from any and all claims, liabilities, demands and causes of action asserted by persons and entities other than the SEC and its member institutions (jointly "Claims") arising out of any act or omission, or anything done or purported to have been done, by Bearer, including but not limited to Claims arising from Bearer's breach of any term or condition hereof. With respect to any Claim that might give rise to liability of the Bearer as an indemnitor, the indemnified party shall: (a) have the right to fully participate in the litigation of such claim with counsel selected by the indemnified party at the sole expense of the Bearer, and (b) not be obligated, without its consent, to participate in any settlement of such Claim.

SEC REAL-TIME INTERNET POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five (5) days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Office Coordinator

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

UKathletics.com

The official website for University of Kentucky Athletics is updated 24 hours before each game with the latest game notes and quotes from Coach John Calipari and selected players.

Following each game, the site will post a game box score with summary, postgame quotes and notes from all home games and updated season statistics.

CAT SCRATCHES

The official blog of UK Athletics provides Wildcat fans with an all-access view into the world of UK Athletics. For 24 hours a day, seven days a week, the blog provides the latest news surrounding the UK program and offers Wildcat fans the opportunity to take a behind-the-scenes look at what goes on inside the UK Athletics program.

Cat Scratches features breaking news and announcements, in-depth features on players and coaches, live in-game updates of UK sports, email questions from fans, practice reports from all the Wildcat teams, and much, much more.

ACCESSING PUBLICITY PHOTOS/LOGOS

Media members wishing to obtain photos and logos of the University of Kentucky men's basketball team may do so by contacting the UK Media Relations Office.

Photo requests need to be limited to no more than 5-7 pictures. For archive photos, please contact Matt Harris with UK Archives at matt.harris@uky.edu.

SEC SERVICES

John Calipari, along with the other 13 conference coaches, will participate in the Southeastern Conference's teleconference call. This year the calls will be conducted Jan. 2, Jan. 16, Jan. 26, Feb. 6, Feb. 20 and March 6. For the phone number to participate, contact the SEC Media Relations office at 205.458.3010. Information also can be obtained on the web at www.secsports.com.

RADIO/TV RIGHTS

Broadcasting rights to UK games are assigned exclusively to the UK Sports Network. One reciprocal rights fee waiver is guaranteed opponent schools visiting Lexington. Contact Neil Price, network coordinator, at price@jmisports.com. Two phone lines and an ISDN line are available for visiting radio.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

UK Sports Video can provide highlight footage of most UK games. Contact Greg Gorham at greg.gorham@uky.edu to request assistance.

GAMEDAY MEDIA SERVICES

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of spots are available at Rupp Arena. The city of Lexington assesses a charge for parking privileges. Requests should be made when submitting press and/or photo credential requests. The media parking area can be accessed from Main Street or Manchester Street. The lot opens three hours before tipoff.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media will call is located near the receiving entrance to Rupp Arena and adjacent to media parking. Credentials are not available at the public will call window on the High Street concourse level and will not be mailed.

MEDIA SERVICES

The University of Kentucky uses a computerized statistics system. Working media will receive:

- Game program and notes
- Halftime statistics
- Final statistics
- Complete play-by-play
- Shot charts
- Coach and player quotes

MEDIA ROOM

The media room and photo compound is located beneath section 28 and can be accessed through the floor exit beneath section 26. Working facilities, with electrical outlets and a limited number of telephones, are available.

WIRELESS INTERNET

UK provides media members with complimentary wireless internet access at Rupp Arena. Contact a UK media relations staff member for details.

TELEPHONES

A limited number of telephones are available in the Rupp Arena media room. Newspapers and radio stations desiring their own private lines, to be installed either on press row or in the media room, should contact Windstream at 800.843.9214.

PHOTO COMPOUND

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The photo zones are appropriately marked on the Rupp Arena floor. Some photo spots are assigned. Because of safety concerns, no shooting is allowed on either sideline. Due to the amount of space, photo credentials will be limited. See Chet White at the site for technical assistance.

Prior to moving or installing any cables around the basketball floor and/or in the seating area, including cable trays or otherwise, please coordinate your efforts with the Lexington Center/Rupp Arena technical staff.

Professional DSLR still cameras and video cameras are required to shoot from the floor. No point-and-shoot still cameras or flip video cameras will be allowed on the floor. Please have rubber/non-scratch pads under stools to avoid scratching the Rupp Arena floor. Per NCAA regulations, stools shall not exceed nine inches in height.

GAMEDAY LIVE STATS

Live in-game stats will be provided at the web address http://Kentucky.StatBroadcast.com.

WILDCATS ON THE AIR

TOM LEACH

Play-by-Play Broadcaster

As a high school senior, Tom Leach listed his ultimate career goal "to become the next Voice of the Wildcats." Almost every broadcaster in Kentucky wants that best seat in Rupp Arena, but the dream came true for Tom. Now, he follows in the footsteps of Cawood Ledford, Ralph Hacker, Claude Sullivan, Jim Host and the others who have called the games for the Cats.

Tom began his work on the UK Radio Network in 1989 as host of the postgame scoreboard and call-in shows. Eight years later, he was named the play-by-play voice for Kentucky football and he added the basketball responsibilities in 2001. Since then, he's been named Kentucky Sportscaster of the year five times.

Tom has been at the mic for many memorable moments for UK sports. These include the 2012 national championship for the Kentucky basketball team and an upset of No. 1 LSU on the gridiron in 2007. He's worked four Final Fours and seven bowl games while covering the Wildcats.

Another Bluegrass tradition is part of Tom's broadcasting résumé: horse racing. Tom covers racing throughout the year through his association with Keeneland and he is part of the national Westwood One radio network coverage of the Triple Crown.

Leach's love of sports was passed down from father to son. Alvin Leach was a member of the Lexington Hustlers, a historic semi-pro baseball team. The Hustlers team, formed in the 1940s, is believed to be one of the first integrated squads in the south. Leach's brother, Steve, was a standout quarterback at Georgetown College in the early 1960s. And Leach's uncle, Billy Hall, received a football scholarship to the University of Kentucky and played under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Through his Tom Leach Productions company, Tom also hosts a daily radio show on UK sports, "The Leach Report," which airs on more than two dozen stations around the state. And Tom is an author, having penned "Rich Tradition," about Rich Brooks and his revival of the UK football program. Tom Leach Productions also manages Tom's endorsement partnerships and speaking engagements.

Tom is a 1979 graduate of Bourbon County High School and a 1983 graduate of the University of Kentucky. Tom is married to Robyn Rabbeth, a former anchor for WLEX-TV. They have two children: Connor and Caroline.

MIKE PRATT

Broadcast Analyst

Former two-time All-Southeastern Conference performer and UK Hall of Famer Mike Pratt is in his 16th year as analyst on the UK Radio Network. The former professional ABA player, college and pro coach replaced Sam Bowie, who retired from broadcasting prior to the start of the 2001-02 season.

Pratt joined the network after compiling extensive experience as a broadcaster. He began calling games in 1985 for Creative Sports in Charlotte, North Carolina, and prior to returning to the Kentucky sidelines, served as an analyst for NCAA Productions, the Charlotte Hornets Television Network, ESPN and Fox Sports Net South.

Pratt lettered for the Wildcats for three years (1968-70) under Coach Adolph Rupp. In addition to his All-SEC honors, he was a Second Team Converse All-American in 1970, Kentucky's third Academic All-American and a two-time Academic All-SEC selection. While playing alongside the Cats' all-time leading scorer, Dan Issel, the 6-foot-4 forward averaged 19.3 points per game as UK finished the season as the nation's No. 1 team. Pratt finished with 1,359 career points, which still ranks 26th on UK's all-time list.

After Kentucky, Pratt played two seasons for the ABA's Kentucky Colonels. He spent three years as an assistant at UNC-Charlotte for Coach Lee Rose, helping guide the 49ers to the 1977 Final Four. He was named head coach at UNCC in 1978 and compiled a 56-52 record there in four seasons. He worked as an NBA scout for seven years and in '89, became an assistant to Hornets' coach Gene Littles.

He is a member of the UK Athletics Hall of Fame (2009) and the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame (2010).

Pratt currently works in private business in Louisville. He also is on the K Fund staff as a major gifts officer.

Tuning into Kentucky basketball games on radio has been a tradition of following the Wildcats since the dawn of the Fabulous Five.

Even today, as Kentucky basketball continues to dominate the state in popularity from Pikeville to Paducah, fans tune into the action all across the United States. Again this year, more than 75 stations will carry each game live. So whether the Big Blue fans are in Orlando, Florida or Paducah, Kentucky, they can tune into the largest college basketball radio network in the country.

The network reaches its outer limits thanks to such stations as Clear Channel's WHAS in Louisville, 840 on the AM dial, or WCKY-AM in Cincinnati, at frequency 1530. Each broadcast also can be heard around the world on UKathletics.com.

Outstanding broadcasters have called Wildcat games through the years. Claude Sullivan spent 19 years (1948-67) behind the microphone describing UK men's basketball and football games, while the legendary Cawood Ledford called the action for 39 years (1953-92). Ralph Hacker, Ledford's partner beginning in 1973, took over the play-by-play duties in 1993 before retiring following the 2001 season, an impressive 29-year career. Tom Leach took over for Hacker at the start of the 2001-02 season and begins his 16th season this fall.

Tom Leach and Mike Pratt enter their 16th season with the UK Radio Network.

john CALIPARI

Head Coach | Eighth Season
Hired: March 31, 2009

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 39 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 24-year college coaching career.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari's career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career.

In advancing to the 2015 Final Four, Coach Cal became one of just three coaches all-time to make four Final Fours in a five-year span, joining Mike Krzyzewski and John Wooden as the other coaches to achieve that feat. Twice at UK (in 2012 and in 2015) his teams have won 38 games, tying his 2008 Memphis team for the most wins in college basketball history.

At the end of the 2014-15 season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate achievements in the game.

Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, 2012, 2014, 2015).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the 2012 title, finishing the season as the nation's top-ranked team in field-goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference and an SEC Tournament championship, all while extending his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games. Calipari later extended his perfect mark at home as UK's coach to 54 games before finally losing in his fourth year at Kentucky.

Upon being named head coach on April 1, 2009, Calipari continued to work his magic of resurrecting once proud programs, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), and an SEC regular-season and tournament championship.

The honors continued after the 2009-10 season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first-round picks in a single draft. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996, and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

In his second year in 2010-11, a season that was labeled as a "rebuilding effort," one in which Calipari and the Cats were supposed to struggle after losing an unprecedented five first-round picks in the 2010 NBA Draft, Kentucky reloaded as Calipari guided UK to another SEC Tournament championship and collected his 500th career on-court win.

Coaching the youngest team in the nation in 2013-14, Calipari guided Kentucky back to the Final Four for the third time in four seasons, coming up just one win short of his second national championship.

Calipari and the Cats reached the championship game in what some national pundits called one of the greatest NCAA Tournament runs of all-time. Seeded No. 8 in a region analysts called "the region of doom," UK knocked off previously undefeated and top-seeded Wichita State, downed defending national champion and archrival Louisville, and defeated defending national runner-up and Big 10 champion Michigan before edging Wisconsin in the Final Four. UK became the first team ever to knock off three of the previous season's Final Four teams, and the Cats did so starting five freshmen and coming off an appearance in the NIT the season before.

The core of that 2014 Final Four team returned to Lexington for the 2014-15 season and joined one of the nation's top-ranked recruiting classes, putting Calipari in an unprecedented coaching position. With a roster full of players capable of starting at just about any other school, Coach Cal got his team to share and sacrifice minutes for one another with a two-platoon system and got a collection of future pros to play for one another.

The result was a season unlike anything college basketball had ever seen before. Behind one of the game's best defensive units ever, the Wildcats became the first team in NCAA history to post a 38-0 record. Among UK's most notable achievements in 2014-15 were the longest winning streak in program history, the best start ever by an SEC team, and an SEC regular-season and tournament title. The 38 straight wins marked the 17th streak of Calipari's career where his teams won 10 or more consecutive games during the season, the sixth where they won 20 or more, the fifth where they won 25 or more, the first where they won 30 or more, and the first where they won 35 or more. In the process, Calipari also notched his 600th on-court victory, becoming the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

Though he deferred all the credit to his players for allowing the season to happen, Calipari raked in a handful of national coach of the year awards nonetheless, including honors from the AP (his first), Naismith (his third, becoming the first coach to win it at multiple programs), National Association of Basketball Coaches (his third), Sporting News and the Adolph Rupp Award (his second).

In his most recent season as head coach, in 2015-16, Calipari replaced his top seven scorers, who went on to the NBA, and still led the Wildcats to their 47th regular-season SEC title and their 29th SEC Tournament crown. Tyler Ulis was tabbed an NCAA Consensus First Team All-American, becoming the shortest player to earn the distinction since 1958. Meanwhile, Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky in his 240th game, becoming the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school. He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, he has helped 39 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 28 over his first seven seasons at Kentucky. The 28 picks over that seven-season span is more than double any other coach.

In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history. He followed that up with four players in the draft in 2011, six players in 2012 — the most in a two-round draft — two in 2013, two in 2014, another six in 2015, and three in 2016. The 2015 haul included four lottery picks, tying the most in NBA history.

Overall, he's churned out 28 NBA draft picks, 21 first-rounders, three No. 1 overall selections, 11 top-10 picks and 14 lottery selections at Kentucky. Since the 2008 draft, 33 of Coach Cal's players have been taken in the NBA Draft, including 23 first-rounders. Calipari has produced a top-10 pick in nine straight drafts. No other school has had a first-rounder in each of the last nine drafts.

Included in Calipari's NBA success are four No. 1 overall picks (Derrick Rose, Karl-Anthony Towns, Wall and Davis) over an eight-year period. No other coach has had more than two No. 1 picks, and 2012 was the first time two players from the same team (Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist) were taken with the top two picks in the draft.

Another way to look at Calipari's phenomenal ability to put players in the NBA: 28 of the 41 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari have been selected in the NBA Draft, a staggering 68.3-percent success rate. Of the 18 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, all 18 have been first-round picks. Calipari is 22 for 22 in that regard if you include his Memphis players.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. Rose was named MVP in 2011, three players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Davis and DeMarcus Cousins), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Tyreke Evans and Towns), and 10 players from Calipari's first six teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his final 18 seniors who came through the Memphis program earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 14 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years in the Calipari era have graduated, including three players (Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress) who earned their degree in just three years.

In seven of the last 11 semesters, Calipari's teams have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better. In 2016, Kentucky earned a perfect four-year composite Academic Progress Rate score of 1,000. It was also the second consecutive year in which UK earned a perfect one-year score and received an NCAA award for ranking in the top 10 percent of the country in the APR for men's basketball. Each of Calipari's teams have far surpassed the Division I average APR score over the last eight years.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history and seventh in the last 80 years.

Calipari's overall on-court record is 662-187 (.780) following his seventh season at UK. He entered the 2015-16 season with the third-highest winning percentage among active NCAA Division I coaches with five years of experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few and Roy Williams.

Calipari is one of only two coaches (Williams) in NCAA Division I history to have 400 or more wins in his first 16 years as a head coach, and his 173 victories from 2008-12 are the most ever for a coach over a five-year span in Division I history. Since the 2005-06 season, he has the best winning percentage among all Division I coaches. On the NCAA Division I list for best on-court winning percentage to start a career (minimum 10 years), Calipari entered the 2016-17 season in fifth place and ahead of Krzyzewski, Bill Self, Jim Boeheim, Bob Huggins, Lute Olson, Dean Smith and Phog Allen.

His nine 30-win seasons are third most for a head coach in NCAA Division I history, and he is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons. For his college career (24 years), Calipari has 22 20-win seasons and 15 25-win campaigns. The 22 consecutive 20-win seasons is the second-longest streak in NCAA history,

John Calipari was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015.

CALIPARI'S DRAFT PICKS

In 24 seasons as a head coach, John Calipari has coached 39 NBA Draft picks, including 27 first-round selections, with 15 of those going in the top 10. He's had four players draft No. 1 overall, twice as many as any other coach. Here's a list of all of his draft picks:

trailing only Dean Smith, who had 27.

His NCAA Tournament record is 48-16, a .750 winning percentage. His six Final Four appearances are tied for seventh most by a coach all-time, and his 11 straight NCAA Tournament wins prior to the 2014 national championship loss was the longest winning streak in the tournament since the Florida Gators won 12 straight in 2006 and 2007.

Calipari got his first taste of international basketball when he accepted the head coaching position of the Dominican Republic National Team in 2011. His impact on the country was immediate and unprecedented.

In his first year with the team, Coach Cal led the Dominican Republic to a bronze-medal finish at the 2011 FIBA Americas Championship in Mar del Plata, Argentina, defeating archrival Puerto Rico and world power Brazil along the way. The Dominicans came within one win in the semifinal round of qualifying for the country's first-ever appearance in the Olympics. The third-place finish secured a spot at the 2012 FIBA World Olympic Qualifying Tournament as one of 12 teams vying for three open spots to the 2012 Olympic Games in London. There, again, the Dominicans came within one win of making history and qualifying for the Olympics.

Calipari also led the Dominican Republic to a gold medal at the 2012 Centrobasket. It was the first Centrobasket title in eight years for the Dominican Republic and just the third in the country's history.

Coach Cal started his head-coaching career at UMass in 1988-89, guiding a struggling program to the top of college basketball, capped off by a Final Four appearance in 1996.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began building a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT). The Minutemen won their first Atlantic 10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

From there, the program skyrocketed under Coach Cal.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 on-court record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in A-10 play. In addition to five straight NCAA Tournaments and a Final Four appearance in 1996, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT semifinals in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the A-10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 Final Four season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular-season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his Naismith National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become executive vice president of basketball operations and head coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year postseason drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining head coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari returned to the college game in 2000 at Memphis, where he led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game. Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 on-court wins — 28.0 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Calipari, who is on the board of directors for the NABC, began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but he was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 57-year-old lettered two years at UNC-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free-throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari's foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country, and in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with another telethon in 2012 that raised $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy.

A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend. Despite the absence of the alumni game – a large generator of the alumni weekend funds — in 2014, he and his basketball fantasy experience matched the $1 million the following year. Then in 2015, Calipari helped organize an Alumni Game matching UK alums against North Carolina alums. That game, which was broadcast nationally on ESPNU, along with the fantasy experience, raised $1.5 million with matching funds.

With Rupp Arena under construction in 2016, Calipari held a celebrity softball game during the annual UK alumni weekend. That game, with the fantasy experience, raised approximately $1.5 million for charity with matching funds, including more than $450,000 that went to Louisiana flood relief efforts.

Calipari's foundation has also worked with and donated money to Samaritan's Feet, the West Liberty Recovery Fund, 4 Paws for Ability, the Starkey Hearing Foundation, the Urban League of Lexington and the V Foundation. Calipari has also headed up the EverFi Financial Literacy Program, which teaches students across Kentucky the importance of money management.

Author of the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out" Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto "that it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin and Megan, and a son, Bradley.

DEVELOPING TALENT

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 25 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed and have completed their college eligibility), 21 were drafted and 18 were selected in the first round. Those draft numbers don't include Isaiah Briscoe or any of the 2016 class, all of whom are still in school.

Of the 18 players who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman season at Kentucky, all 18 of them have been selected in the first round. Calipari is 22 for 22 in that regard when including his players from Memphis.

But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's more than 40 NBA pros have made $1.2 billion in NBA contracts alone, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts.

Of the players currently playing in the NBA, they've earned approximately $1 billion in guaranteed contracts.

kenny PAYNE

Associate Head Coach | Seventh Season

Kenny Payne will enter his seventh year with John Calipari and the Kentucky men's basketball program in 2015-16. He was promoted to associate head coach in May of 2014 after serving his first four seasons as an assistant coach. Prior to his arrival at UK he served as an assistant at Oregon for six seasons.

Payne's work with Kentucky's big men has played an instrumental role in UK's NBA Draft success. Payne's development with Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns helped the Kentucky freshmen go No. 1 overall in their respective drafts.

Payne was also a key in the development of Julius Randle, who was taken seventh overall in the 2014 NBA Draft, Nerlens Noel, who was drafted sixth overall in 2013, Willie Cauley-Stein, who was selected sixth in 2016, and Josh Harrellson, who became a second-round draft pick following a breakout senior campaign in 2011.

Nationally recognized as one of the game's top recruiters, Payne's ability to recruit has continued to flourish at Kentucky. He played a key part in Calipari's last six recruiting classes. The 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2016 classes all ranked No. 1 in the country, according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index. UK's 2014 class had four McDonald's All-Americans and was rated No. 2 overall. The 2013 class consisted of a record six McDonald's All-Americans and was heralded as one of the best classes ever assembled by many pundits.

Payne hasn't just helped recruit players to Kentucky; he's also helped develop them into stars. In five of the six years since Payne arrived at UK, the Cats have had a post player chosen in the top 10 of the NBA Draft. In all six, at least one has gone in the first round.

Kentucky has advanced to the Final Four in four of the six seasons in which Payne has been on staff, including in 2015, when, in his first year as an associate head coach, Payne helped guide the Wildcats to the first 38-0 record in college basketball history.

Payne's first season as part of the Kentucky staff came during the 2010-11 season as the Wildcats advanced to the Final Four, the first in the Calipari era.

Kentucky then captured the national championship during Payne's second season and Davis was the recipient of numerous national player of the year accolades.

Payne was instrumental in helping lead UK back to the national title game in 2014 behind the play of Randle, an All-American forward who broke freshman records in rebounding, double-doubles and free throws made.

During his tenure at Oregon, Payne helped the Ducks burst onto the national scene with two NCAA Tournament appearances in 2007 and 2008. Oregon also claimed one Pacific-10 Tournament title and three Ducks were selected in the first and second rounds of the NBA Draft under Payne.

During the 2006-07 season, the Ducks recorded an 11-7 Pac-10 record and posted an undefeated mark in nonconference regular-season games, finishing with a 29-8 overall record. That season, Oregon captured the Pac-10 Tournament, and followed the tournament run with an impressive performance at the NCAA Tournament. The Ducks earned a No. 3 seed in the tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight, where they lost to eventual champions Florida.

The Ducks followed their Elite Eight run with another appearance in the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Payne and the Oregon coaching staff then reigned in a top-20 recruiting class for the 2008 season with six highly touted recruits.

Prior to coaching, Payne traveled the globe playing basketball for 10 different professional leagues. In 1989, Payne was chosen in the first round and 19th overall in the NBA Draft, playing four years for the Philadelphia 76ers.

Payne competed in the Continental Basketball Association (Tri-Cities, Washington) and overseas in Italy, Japan, Brazil, the Philippines, Cypress, China and Argentina. He finished his professional career in 2000 following a season with Team Taipans of Cairns in Australia.

A four-year letterwinner at Louisville from 1985-89, Payne joined the Cardinals from Northeast Jones High School in Laurel, Mississippi, where he was a Parade All-American and the state's player of the year.

Payne helped lead Louisville to the 1986 NCAA national championship as a sophomore when he appeared in 34 games and averaged 3.6 points per game. As a senior, Payne averaged 14.5 points and 5.7 rebounds and was named Second Team All-Metro Conference.

By the end of his Louisville career, Payne registered 1,083 points and shot 40 percent from 3-point range.

Payne earned a bachelor of science in sport administration from Louisville in 2003.

He and his wife, Michelle, have two children, Alexis and Alexander.

tony BARBEE

Assistant Coach | Second Season

Tony Barbee is in his second season as an assistant coach at Kentucky after serving the 2014-15 season as special assistant to the head coach at UK.

In his first season as an assistant coach, Barbee helped the Wildcats to both the Southeastern Conference regular-season and tournament championships. On the road recruiting, he helped secure the No. 1 class in 2016, as designated by the Recruiting Services Consensus Index.

During the 2014-15 season, Barbee served as the special assistant to head coach John Calipari, where he assisted Calipari in a multitude of roles, including game-plan preparation, practice plans and administrative duties within everyday basketball operations. With Barbee's help the Wildcats enjoyed one of the most storied seasons in program history, becoming the first team in NCAA history to begin a season 38-0 while claiming the SEC regular-season and tournament crowns, advancing to the program's fourth Final Four in five seasons, and helping six players go in the NBA Draft.

Barbee was previously the head coach at UTEP and at Auburn and has served as an assistant coach under Calipari for a total of eight seasons in his career.

Barbee played for Calipari at UMass before starting his coaching career as a graduate assistant on the Massachusetts staff in 1995-96. The Minutemen advanced to the NCAA Final Four in Barbee's first season as a member of the coaching staff.

He served as an assistant coach for two seasons at UMass before taking an assistant coaching position at Wyoming. Barbee rejoined Calipari as an assistant at Memphis for six seasons from 2001-06.

The Tigers earned a 20-win season in each of his six years on staff. The Tigers claimed a pair of Conference USA titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament three times during his tenure, including an Elite Eight run in his final season. During Barbee's tenure at Memphis, the Tigers won 148 games, an average of nearly 25 victories per season.

Memphis produced top-10 recruiting classes in each of Barbee's six years, including the 2001 class that was ranked No. 1 in the country.

Barbee was hired as UTEP's head coach in 2006. During his four-year tenure at the helm of the Miners program, he averaged 20.5 wins per seasons and exceeded his win total from year to year. His most prolific season at UTEP was his last in which he led the Miners to a 26-7 overall record, a C-USA regular-season title and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2009-10.

He became Auburn's head coach prior to the start of the 2010-11 season. He spent four seasons as the head coach of the Tigers and has amassed an overall 131-127 record as a head coach.

Prior to Auburn, Barbee had advanced to postseason play in 18 of his 19 seasons as a head coach, assistant coach and player.

As a player, Barbee helped lead the Minutemen to a pair of Atlantic 10 championships and two NCAA Tournaments, including the Sweet 16 in 1992. UMass went 91-39 during his four-year career.

Barbee still ranks among the school's all-time leaders in numerous statistical categories, including scoring with 1,643 points. He was a Second Team All-Atlantic 10 player in 1991 and 1993 and All-Atlantic 10 Freshman Team selection in 1990.

The Indianapolis native played professionally in Spain and France after his playing career at UMass. He earned his bachelor of arts in sports management from UMass in 1993, with a minor in African-American studies.

He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Hayden Alexandra, and son, Andrew Marsh.

Assistant Coach | First Season

Joel Justus enters his first season as an assistant coach after serving two seasons on staff, first as the director of analytics and then as the special assistant to the head coach.

Justus joined the staff for the historic 2014-15 season as the director of analytics. Using Justus' analytics, Kentucky's players bought in to a two-platoon system that helped the Wildcats become one of the most efficient teams in the country, including the most dominant defensive team in recent history, as UK became the first team in college basketball history to start a season 38-0.

Justus analyzed player and team performance, utilizing various stats and data to help develop efficient strategies through video. He developed tools that streamlined the decision-making process of the coaching staff using advanced statistical modeling and analysis.

He also analyzed large data sets to aid the coaching staff's scouting reports as well as postgame analysis. He assisted in day-to-day operations of the program, which included coordinating with NBA personnel while assisting in many areas of basketball operations.

After successfully integrating analytics into the daily culture of the program, he was elevated to special assistant to the head coach for the 2015-16 season. With his previous responsibilities remaining an active part of his duties, Justus' role expanded to include scouting future opponents, providing strategies to help advance the program and assisting with special projects assigned by Calipari.

Justus came to UK after serving as the head coach at Davidson Day High School in Davidson, North Carolina. In both years at the helm, he guided the Patriots to the Elite Eight in the state tournament.

Prior to his time at Davidson Day, Justus served as the head boys' basketball coach at Woodberry Forest School in Woodberry, Virginia, from 2008-12. During his time at Woodberry Forest, he guided his team to the Virginia Prep League regular-season championship in 2010 while advancing to the Virginia Prep League championship game in consecutive years, a first in more than two decades.

Justus has spent time in college basketball as an assistant coach at Elon University from 2004-08, where he helped guide the Phoenix to a Northern Division title in 2006 and the Southern Conference championship game in 2008.

A 2004 graduate of UNC Wilmington, Justus helped the Seahawks as a student-athlete capture two Colonial Athletic Association titles, made three postseason appearances (NIT in 2001 and NCAA in 2002 and 2003) and was team captain his senior season.

john ROBIC

Special Assistant to the Head Coach | First Season

John Robic is in his first season with the Kentucky basketball program as the special assistant to the head coach. He is a long-time associate of UK head coach John Calipari, including the first seven seasons at Kentucky as an assistant coach.

Robic will remain Calipari's right-hand man. He will continue to scout future opponents, help Calipari game plan, break down film with Calipari, and carry out special projects and assignments from the head coach.

Beginning with their first season together at UMass in 1988-89, where Robic was an assistant under Calipari, the two are entering their 20th season together. It seems as if the Calipari-Robic duo is a proven combination for thrilling basketball seasons.

Similar to those magical years he assisted in at UMass in the 1990s, Robic helped lead Memphis to the program's most storied era in school history in four seasons with the Tigers (2006-09), as well as helping return Kentucky back among the nation's elite since his arrival in Lexington.

Robic helped the Wildcats post a 35-3 mark in his inaugural season at Kentucky. The Cats made an appearance in the 2010 Elite Eight while claiming SEC regular-season and tournament championships along the way.

He helped UK make history when five Wildcats were drafted in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft. In 2011, Kentucky returned to the Final Four for the first time since 1998. Four more players were taken in the 2011 NBA Draft under the watch of the Calipari-Robic combination.

During his third season at UK, the Wildcats set an NCAA record with 38 victories en route to the program's eighth national championship. Anthony Davis was tabbed the national player of the year by several outlets and went on to become the second No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick in three seasons for UK. Kentucky continued to make history when Michael Kidd-Gilchrist was chosen No. 2 overall to become the first teammates to go 1-2 in Draft history. The duo led a record-breaking six selections in the same draft year.

Despite missing the final nine game of his freshman season, Nerlens Noel became Kentucky's seventh top-10 selection during the 2013 NBA Draft. Classmate Archie Goodwin was taken in the opening round and became UK's 17th selection in four seasons.

Robic was instrumental in the game prep and scouting for the 2014 trek to the national championship game, a run that some national pundits called one of the greatest NCAA Tournament runs of all time. Seeded No. 8 in a region analysts called "the region of doom," UK knocked off previously undefeated and top-seeded Wichita State, downed defending national champion and archrival Louisville, and defeated defending national runner-up and Big 10 champion Michigan before edging Wisconsin in the Final Four. UK became the first team ever to knock off three of the previous season's Final Four teams.

History was once again the story during the 2014-15 season as the Wildcats won a record 38 games to start the season, reaching yet another Final Four while sending six players to the NBA Draft, including the top overall pick for the third time in six seasons.

Last season, UK won both the Southeastern Conference regular-season and tournament titles while sending three more players to the NBA Draft.

His last four years at Memphis, the Tigers won an NCAA record 137 games (137-14 record) while advancing to the 2006 and 2007 NCAA Elite Eights, the 2008 NCAA title game, and sweeping the 2006-09 Conference USA regular-season and tournament crowns. Memphis spent each week of the last four years in the national polls.

In 2007-08, Robic was a part of the Tigers' "Dream Season," which lasted through the NCAA championship game. Memphis set an NCAA record for victories with 38 wins (38-2 mark) and held down the No. 1 spot in both national polls for a school-record five straight weeks during the season.

Before 2005-06, Robic served as the head coach at Youngstown State from 1999-2005.

Prior to its move to the Horizon League, Youngstown State put together a tremendous year in the Mid-Con in 2000-01, Robic's second year at the helm. The Penguins posted a 19-11 overall mark and an 11-5 Mid-Con record. The 19 overall wins were the second most in 16 seasons, and the 11 league victories tied the school record for most conference wins.

Before taking over at Youngstown State, Robic served as an assistant for 11 years at UMass for both Calipari and Bruiser Flint.

After a 10-18 mark his first season on staff, Robic helped lead the Minutemen to nine consecutive winning campaigns.

From 1990-96, the Minutemen averaged 26 wins per year and had six straight 20-win seasons, including two 30-victory campaigns. UMass made the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 1992, Elite Eight in 1995 and Final Four in 1996. It was UMass' first appearance on college basketball's largest stage.

After Calipari moved on to the NBA, Robic remained at UMass and was elevated to the associate head coach post under Flint from 1997-99. During his tenure at UMass, the Minutemen posted a 247-111 overall record (.690 winning percentage) and earned nine postseason tournament bids (seven NCAA, two NIT).

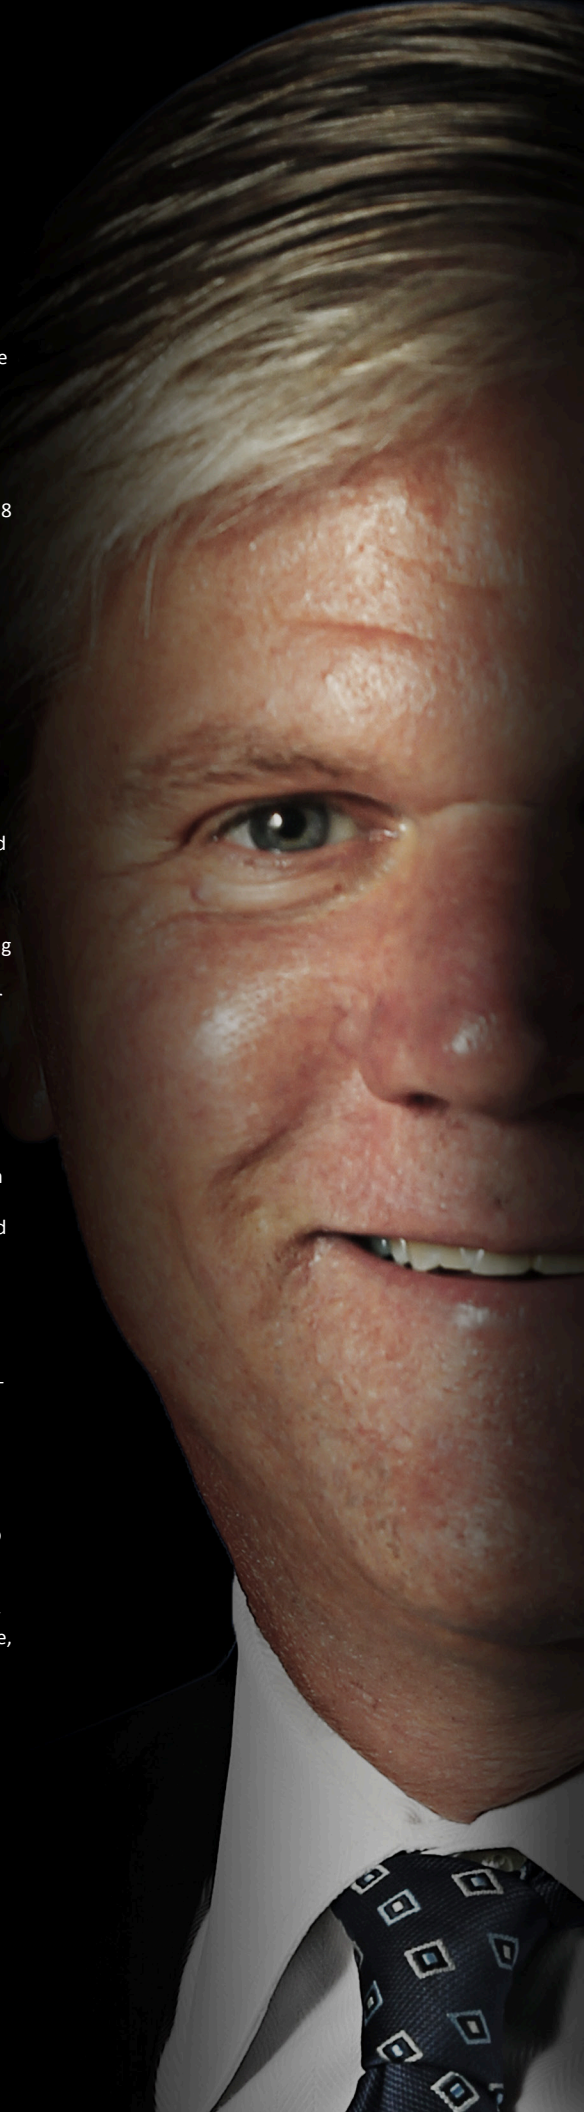

A graduate of North Hills High School in Pittsburgh, Robic attended Walsh College in Canton, Ohio, before transferring to Denison University in Granville, Ohio, where he earned his bachelor of arts in speech communication and physical education in 1986.

At Denison, Robic garnered Division III All-America accolades as a senior and was a two-time all-conference performer. He was one of 10 former players to be named to the 10th Anniversary All-Decade Team in the league in 1994. In the fall of 2006, he was inducted into the Denison Athletic Hall of Fame. Robic was inducted into the North Hills High School Hall of Fame in 2004.

Robic and his wife, Heidi, have three daughters; Hayley, a Kentucky graduate, Alli, a senior at UK, and Sophie, a sophomore at UAB and member of the UAB softball team.

SUPPORT STAFF

CHRIS WOOLARD

ASSOCIATE AD FOR BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Chris Woolard enters his sixth season as UK's associate athletics director for basketball operations.

Woolard brings a wealth of experience at both the school and conference levels.

He is involved with all aspects of the program and has an active role as a liason between John Calipari and the basketball program with the campus and the Commonwealth.

Woolard joined the University of Kentucky staff after spending seven years at the Conference USA office where he was the associate commissioner for sports services.

At C-USA, Woolard's responsibilities focused extensively on the men's basketball programs as administrator and tournament director for the annual men's basketball championship. Woolard also served as the primary administrator for men's golf along with his duties to provide oversight to the C-USA Sports Services Department.

Prior to joining Conference USA, Woolard spent a year in private business after working eight years in the college basketball coaching ranks. He was an integral part of a highly successful Murray State men's basketball team from 1997-2003, serving as an assistant coach.

During Woolard's time at Murray State, the Racers won three conference championships and made three NCAA appearances. At MSU, he was the staff's lead recruiter and was also responsible for on-floor coaching, providing detailed opponent scouting reports and administrative duties such as academics, compliance, budget, scheduling, summer camps and team travel.

Woolard began his collegiate coaching career as a student assistant coach at UCLA. During his two years in Westwood, California, he was involved in recruiting, summer camps and also assisted with practice drills and scrimmages.

Prior to finishing his college career at UCLA, he studied at Washington State for two years and played one season as a member of the varsity basketball team at Chapman University.

A native of Carbondale, Illinois, Woolard earned a bachelor's degree in history from UCLA in August 1997. He and his wife, Courtney, were married in the summer of 2016.

ROBERT HARRIS

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Robert Harris is in his first season as the strength and conditioning coach for the men's basketball team after serving two seasons as the assistant strength coach.

Harris is responsible for the day-to-day fitness of the men's basketball team. In his first season with the program, he helped the Wildcats maintain peak physical condition as they reeled off an unprecedented 38 straight victories to start the 2014-15 season. He's also responsible for the skills and athletic testing at Kentucky's annual open practice, where scouts and general managers across the NBA attend two days of UK practice for a basis of physical measurements for future professional evaluations.

Harris came to the University of Kentucky after serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at the University of Arkansas.

Prior to his stint at Arkansas, Harris worked as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals for three years. With the Bengals, Harris was responsible for assisting in the development of the programs and weight room operations.

He began his career as an intern with Kentucky's football strength and conditioning program in 2009, before joining the Velocity Sports Performance staff. With Velocity, he assisted head performance coaches with workouts and assisted with development programs for NFL draft prospects.

Harris then joined the staff as an intern with Ohio State's football program, assisting with the coordinating and implementation of strength training and conditioning programs for the Buckeyes.

He is certified as a Performance Enhancement Specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine, USA Weightlifting Club Coach, National Association of Speed and Explosion and Functional Movement Screen. He is also a certified Strength Abs Coach through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Harris is a 2009 graduate of Kentucky State University with a bachelor of arts in physical education. He earned a master's degree at Eastern Kentucky University in sports administration in 2010.

He and his wife, Maria, have two daughters, Anaya and Alaya.

WILL BARTON

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL ADMINISTRATION

Will Barton is in his second season with the Kentucky men's basketball team as the director of basketball administration and his eighth overall season with the program. Barton previously served as the assistant director of operations during the 2014-15 campaign and as a student manager in his first five seasons.

As the director of basketball administration, Barton assists the associate athletic director for basketball operations with the day-to-day operations of the men's basketball team, including the operations of the budget, academics, travel, meals, ticketing and team managers.

Barton also assists with the direction and planning of men's basketball camps. He hires and supervises all camp counselors of UK's highly popular camps.

Prior to the 2014-15 season, Barton served as the assistant director of operations. In that role, Barton assisted the head and assistant coaches with daily practices, performed in-game duties to assist coaches, prepare players and maintain equipment, and oversaw summer camp preparations, including transporting equipment and apparel, instructing participants on technique and skills, and camp retail management.

As a student, Barton was a vital member of the manager staff that went to Final Fours in 2011, 2012 and 2014, including the 2012 national championship.

Barton, a native of Lexington, graduated from UK in 2012 with a degree in business administration. He earned his master's in sports leadership in 2015 from Kentucky.

TIM ASHER

BASKETBALL VIDEO COORDINATOR

Tim Asher, a two-time winner of the Basketball Video Coordinator of the Year award, is in his 19th year as the Wildcats' basketball video coordinator after serving the previous 12 seasons as the team's traveling videographer.

Widely regarded among his peers as one of the hardest-working people in his field, Asher recently became the first two-time winner of the Basketball Video Coordinator of the Year honor – awarded annually to the video coordinator who displays innovation, determination, perseverance and technical skill – after winning the Collegiate Sports Video Association's pick for the 2014-15 season.

In his role, Asher oversees all of the basketball program's production, including maintaining the Wildcats' sophisticated editing system, managing the purchasing and implementation of new technologies, as well as overseeing the day-to-day operations of the UK men's basketball team's video needs. He is heavily involved in the design and integration of video throughout multiple UK athletic facilities, including the $126 million makeover of Commonwealth Stadium.

Asher has also been the lead on the "This is Kentucky Basketball" coach's show, shooting all behind-the-scenes aspects as well as the majority of the Q&A's, "Inside the Play" segments and other features.

He has worked on the UK football team video staff for the past 30 years.

Asher started his own company in 1987, Idle Minds Productions, which provides video services for various networks, documentaries and commercials. He's been employed as a freelance trainer and demo artist on non-linear video systems for Sony Corporation since 1995, served as a field production specialist for WLEX-TV, and as a producer/director and then production manager for WDKY-TV.

A native of Olive Hill, Kentucky, Asher earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Morehead State University where he began his career shooting 16mm film for the football team as well as video for the men's basketball program.

He and his wife, Cindy, have an 18-year-old daughter, Laura.

MARK EVANS

MEN'S BASKETBALL
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Mark Evans is in his fourth season as UK men's basketball head equipment manager. He previously spent four seasons as a student manager.

Evans oversees order and inventory for all UK men's basketball equipment needs. Those responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the management of the UK men's basketball equipment budget, inventory reports, fitting of the team and laundry.

As the head supervisor of the managers, Evans coordinates the scheduling of student managers for laundry hours, practice hours, offseason workouts, game day and road trips.

He also oversees Kentucky's locker rooms, practice gyms and other rooms within the Joe Craft Center.

Evans began his career as a student manager at Memphis for one season before transferring to Kentucky upon John Calipari's hiring.

Evans graduated from Kentucky in May of 2013 with degrees in business management and corporate communications. He earned a master's degree in sport leadership from UK in May 2014.

Evans is a native of Elmira, New York.

ERIC LINDSEY

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR
MEDIA RELATIONS

Eric Lindsey is in his ninth year working with Kentucky Athletics and his third season as the primary contact for UK's tradition-rich men's basketball program.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Lindsey has been an integral part of head coach John Calipari's support staff since taking over the management of CoachCal.com in 2011. His first season as the primary men's basketball communications contact came in 2014-15, when Kentucky made a historic run at a 40-0 season that culminated in a Final Four berth and a 38-1 overall record.

Lindsey is charged with managing the overall publicity and promotional efforts for Kentucky's men basketball program, which includes coordinating all needs with Calipari and the coaching staff, in addition to player availability. Kentucky's social media presence – under the direction of Lindsey – is regarded as one of the nation's leaders in popularity, ingenuity and creativity.

Under the guidance of Lindsey, the Wildcats have reeled in a number of honors, including national coach of the year honors for Calipari in 2015, All-America honors for Willie Cauley-Stein and Karl-Anthony Towns in 2015, and consensus First Team All-America, Bob Cousy Award and Southeastern Conference Player of the Year distinctions for Tyler Ulis in 2016. The Kentucky men's basketball media guide was named Best in the Nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America in back-to-back seasons in 2015 and 2016.

Lindsey assists in production and content management for UK's official online home, UKathletics.com, in addition to serving as the media relations contact for the women's golf program.

Before joining Kentucky's media relations staff full time, Lindsey served as the editor of CoachCal.com from 2011-14. Lindsey managed all social media content and saw the site traffic increase by more that 400 percent. He worked directly with Calipari in providing exclusive content, while also assisting in the production of the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching From the Inside Out."

Lindsey, 30, took over CoachCal.com after a successful three-year stint as the assistant director of media relations and new media at UK. Lindsey conceptualized, directed and edited the official blog of UK Athletics. It was a ground-breaking in-house feature platform produced by the athletics staff that quickly spread throughout collegiate athletics, with nearly all major athletics departments producing a similar platform since Lindsey's creation in 2009.

He also headed up Kentucky's initial social media push, serving as the main content editor for Kentucky's highly-popular Twitter account.

During his collegiate days, Lindsey began his passion for sports journalism as an acclaimed editor and writer of UK's award-winning, student-run, daily independent newspaper. He joined the UK media relations staff as an undergraduate assistant at the end of his senior year. Lindsey also served as an intern sports reporter with Lexington's Herald-Leader, primarily focusing on UK basketball, Olympic coverage and youth sports in the region.

A Magna Cum Laude graduate of Kentucky's print journalism program, Lindsey was honored in 2009 by the Kentucky Press Association as having written the Best College Sports Story, Best College Sports Column and Best Sports Feature in the state. He had a story place fourth nationally in the Associate Collegiate Press Newspaper Awards in 2009.

Lindsey and his wife, Stephanie Wurdock Lindsey, reside in Lexington.

DEB MOORE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
MEDIA RELATIONS

Deb Moore is in her 10th year as assistant media relations director at Kentucky and her fifth season working with the men's basketball program.

Moore also serves as the full-time media relations contact for Kentucky's nationally ranked volleyball and men's golf teams.

In 2014, Moore was elevated to coordinator of men's basketball game-day media operations. Under the role, Moore supervises the game-day table crew, all media relations game-day staff and oversees the credentialing for home games in Rupp Arena. In addition, Moore continues to assist in the day-to-day media relations efforts for the men's basketball team, including overseeing interview requests for the student-athletes.

Under the direction of Moore, the Wildcats have garnered numerous national accolades, including consensus All-American Tyler Ulis, who became the school's first Bob Cousy Award winner in 2016. She was a part of the staff during the historic 2015 Final Four team that became the first team in college basketball history to go 38-0. With Moore's promotional assistance, UK reeled in a plethora of awards for its players, including All-America honors for Willie Cauley-Stein and Karl-Anthony Towns.

In her third season with the Wildcats, she was a part of the media relations effort for the 2014 national runner-up team and saw freshman Julius Randle earn All-America distinction. During her tenure with the team, 19 Wildcats have been selected by the NBA, including No. 1 overall selection Towns in 2015.

During the 2012 men's basketball championship season, Moore served as a secondary contact as Anthony Davis captured national player of the year accolades and UK brought home the school's eighth national title.

While working with the Kentucky volleyball team, Craig Skinner has led the Wildcats to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including Sweet 16 appearances in 2009, 2011 and 2013. In 2015-16, Moore helped direct the publicity efforts for the men's golf team that finished 13th at the NCAA Championships and sophomore Tyler "Chip" McDaniel earned All-America distinction becoming the first for coach Brian Craig since 2005.

During her tenure at Kentucky, Moore has served as the media coordinator for three NCAA volleyball regionals, six NCAA volleyball first and second rounds, an NCAA softball super regional, two NCAA softball regionals, the 2013 SEC Softball Tournament, and the 2007 SEC Swimming and Diving Championships.

Since coming to UK, she has also worked with the men's tennis, women's golf, the swimming and diving teams, football, and softball.

Prior to her arrival in Lexington, Moore earned a bachelor's degree in journalism/mass communication from St. Bonaventure University. While at SBU, Moore served as the media coordinator for the 2006 Atlantic 10 Swimming and Diving Championships, where the Bonnies captured the men's title for the first time in nearly a decade.

In the summer of 2005, Moore interned with the public relations staff of the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

Moore completed a master's of science degree in kinesiology and health promotion with an emphasis in sport leadership from the University of Kentucky in December of 2011. The Fredericksburg, Virginia, native is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America and the United States Basketball Writers Association. She is the daughter of Dave and Jodi Moore, and has one sister, Kate, who is a 2013 graduate of Kentucky.

DEWAYNE PEEVY

DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

DeWayne Peevy is in his ninth year at the University of Kentucky and his fourth as the deputy director of athletics.

Peevy, who joined UK in August 2008, plays a prominent role in the day-to-day administration of Kentucky's 22-sport intercollegiate athletics program, assisting UK Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart with strategic planning, key fund-raising and public relations initiatives. Peevy also oversees the men's basketball program, the UK Athletics senior staff, and is the liasion to the Southeastern Conference and SEC Network offices.

Upon his hiring, Peevy oversaw both the media relations department and the award-winning Kentucky sports publication department while serving as the primary media contact for the nationally renowned men's basketball team.

In 2010, Peevy was promoted to senior associate athletic director for communications and assumed oversight over the marketing and sports video departments.

During the spring of 2012, he was promoted to executive associate athletic director for external operations concluding his time as the primary media contact for men's basketball while adding supervision of the K Fund development office and men's basketball liaison duties. He still supervised the media relations, marketing, publications and sports video departments until his promotion to deputy athletics director in 2013.

The Birmingham, Alabama, native also served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Final Four Media Coordination Committee through the 2013 NCAA Championship and he previously served as the sports information director representative on the board of the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Peevy came to UK after spending eight years at the Southeastern Conference. He was responsible for the day-to-day publicity of SEC men's basketball. A graduate of the University of Montevallo, Peevy served as the media director of the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament from 2004-08.

Prior to his time at the SEC, Peevy spent nearly three years at his alma mater where he oversaw and handled all media and promotional operations for all nine varsity sports. He received six national publication awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America at Montevallo.

Peevy also served as the assistant information director at the Gulf South Conference from September 1996 to October 1997.

Peevy received his bachelor of business administration degree in accounting from the University of Montevallo in 1996.

He and his wife, Allison, have two children, Kaitlyn, 16, and Braden, 9.

LUNETHA PRYOR

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Lunetha Pryor begins her seventh season with the University of Kentucky men's basketball team and her 16th season as UK head coach John Calipari's administrative assistant.

Pryor works closely with Chris Woolard, associate athletic director for basketball operations, in coordinating Coach Calipari's calendar and assists Coach Calipari with all of his travel and recruiting responsibilities.

Pryor is also in charge of coordinating all of Coach Calipari's autograph requests in addition to the ticket requests that the basketball office receives and those of the coaching staff. She also worked for the University of Memphis in athletics.

A Memphis native, Pryor has one daughter, Kia Symone. She and her husband, Jason, were married in the summer of 2016.

CHRIS SIMMONS

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Simmons is in his eighth season as head athletic trainer for men's basketball at the University of Kentucky. He reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, assisting Kentucky to its eighth national championship.

Under Simmons' guidance, 33 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, four NBA No. 1 overall selections and 16 NBA lottery picks.

Simmons has been on the bench of five NCAA Final Four appearances, including three national championship game appearances and the historic 2014-15 team that became the first team in college basketball to start a season 38-0.

Simmons was a member of a Tiger staff that helped direct Memphis to three consecutive record-setting seasons. In his first season, Memphis posted a 33-4 overall record, won the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

En route to the 2008 national championship game, Simmons' quick work on Derrick Rose's cut above his eye suffered in the NCAA South Regional semifinal game against Michigan State aided the Tigers' postseason run. Rose finished the Michigan State game and had a tremendous performance against Texas in the South Regional final to claim the NCAA Men's Basketball South Regional MVP honor.

Prior to his time at Memphis, he spent the 2005-06 basketball season as head athletic trainer/coordinator of basketball operations with the Arkansas RimRockers of the NBA Development League.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Simmons earned his master's degree in 2004 from the University of Arkansas. During his tenure with the Razorbacks, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with football.

Simmons is a 2002 graduate of the University of Memphis with his bachelor's degree and a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and National Academy of Sports Medicine.

MICHAEL STONE

DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SERVICES

Michael Stone, director of academic services, is entering his 19th year working with student-athletes in the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services and his 16th year working with the men's basketball team.

Stone, a native of Clay City, Kentucky, has made a positive impact on the Kentucky men's basketball program during his tenure. A tireless worker, Stone has assisted current and former student-athletes in their academic responsibilities and post-graduation aspirations. He has been instrumental in the recent success of the Wildcats in the classroom.

In addition to his responsibilities with the men's basketball program, Stone serves as the academic counselor for Kentucky's baseball team.

Stone has helped 68 men's basketball student-athletes earn Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll honors during his time with the program, including seven more during the 2015-16 season. Prior to Stone's tenure with the men's basketball staff, 29 total student-athletes had earned All-SEC Academic honors, dating back to 1962.

Three times, as recently as 2015 and 2016, the UK men's basketball team has received an NCAA Academic Progress Rate recognition award for placing in the top 10 percent of the nation's Division I's men's basketball APR scores. During the John Calipari era, UK has posted one-year APR scores on 979 in 2009-10, 979 in 2010-11, 977 for the 2011-12 national championship season and 1,000 in each of the past three seasons. The NCAA's APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The NCAA postseason cutoff score is 930.

Under Stone, UK has posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better in seven of the last 11 semesters, including a 3.4 GPA in the 2013 spring semester, the highest among all men's sports at UK that year.

As the Wildcats made history during the 2014-15 season by becoming the first team in college basketball history to start a season 38-0, the Wildcats took care of business in the classroom as 12 of UK's 16 players made the SEC Academic Honor Roll, a school record.

In 2014, Kentucky had nine basketball players earn the distinction, and Sam Malone earned the Elite 69 Award, which honors the player with the highest cumulative GPA at the Final Four. The Wildcats maintained a 3.0 GPA in both semesters during that Final Four run.

In addition to his duties as an academic counselor, Stone supervises the CATS study hall as well as oversees the nightly functions of the CATS facility.

Stone is an active member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics. He has served as the Region II Representative for the Student-Athlete Recognition Committee, which honors student-athletes who have overcome great obstacles to achieve academic success while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

Stone received both a B.S. in economics and a B.B.A. in marketing (1997), as well as his master's in sports management (2002) from UK.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

IMPACT.

It's a word that can have a meaning of stark suddenness, as when a streaking meteor slams into an object in outer space. Or, as in the case of University of Kentucky Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart, impact comes as the result of a stream of accomplishments and service that grows steadily through the test of time.

Now in his 15th year at UK, Barnhart's influence is felt not only in Wildcat athletics, but in conference and national forums as well.

Already having served on numerous committees and boards for the NCAA and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, Barnhart's national leadership will continue to expand as a new member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, which brings responsibility for selecting, seeding and bracketing teams, along with administration of the NCAA's highest-profile event.

With his extensive previous experience on the NCAA Division I Council, as chair of the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee and as a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee, in addition to several other leadership groups, Barnhart is well-suited for his latest task.

On a league level, Barnhart has been active in Southeastern Conference projects. Of recent note is his work with the SEC Compliance Committee and the SEC Network Content Committee, which helped the highly successful launch of the largest new cable channel in television history.

Barnhart's acumen and achievements are being recognized. In 2015, he was named NCAA Division I Athletics Director of the Year, one of four Division I ADs selected for the honor, at the annual NACDA convention.

Barnhart also was one of four finalists for the Athletics Director of the Year as chosen by the SportsBusiness Journal and he received the Sports Business Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission.

It is no coincidence that Barnhart's multiple accolades came in the same year as the completion of his 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, an ambitious blueprint set in 2008 in which Kentucky would rank in the nation's top 15 athletic programs and win 15 conference or national championships by 2015. At the same time, Barnhart set a goal of a 3.0 composite grade-point average for UK student-athletes and an even greater commitment to community service by Wildcat athletes and staff. All of the goals presented bold, unprecedented challenges for UK Athletics.

The academic goal was first achieved in the spring semester of 2010 and has an active streak of eight consecutive 3.0 semesters, hitting a peak in spring 2014 with a school-record 3.218 composite GPA. Community service has risen to more than 4,000 hours annually and includes outreach to the Lexington area, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and as far away as Ethiopia.

The Directors' Cup objective was reached a year early when UK checked in at a school-record No. 11 in the 2013-14 national all-sports standings. Kentucky has a current streak of five straight top-30 finishes in the Directors' Cup, including four of the top five rankings in school history.

The final goal was reached when UK men's basketball claimed the 2015 SEC Tournament title, the 15th championship won by Wildcat athletes since 2008.

Not content with reaching one set of goals, Barnhart has initiated a new objective – Elite 1-3-5. The aim is for each UK team to be No. 1 by winning a conference or national championship, continue a department-wide 3.0 GPA and rank in the top five of the Directors' Cup standings by 2022 – in the process making UK Athletics not just outstanding, but an elite national program.

In addition to attaining the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, championship performance also has been reached in other levels of measurement. In Barnhart's term at UK, the Wildcats have won SEC titles for the first time in baseball, men's golf and women's tennis. More league crowns have been won by teams that hadn't done so in decades. National championships have been claimed in men's basketball and, for the first time, in rifle.

With team success growing, individual accolades have naturally followed. Since 2013, at least one Wildcat has won all four of the SEC's top individual awards – the Roy Kramer Athlete of the Year, Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Brad Davis Community Service Leader of the Year and the SEC Sportsmanship Award. UK and Georgia are the only two league schools that can make that claim.

The impact of Barnhart is recognized by the award-winning Cats. In her acceptance speech for the SEC Community Service Leader Award, golfer Megan Moir acknowledged the inspiration provided by the UK athletic director.

"I would like to thank Mr. Barnhart for the opportunity and the privilege of being a student-athlete at the University of Kentucky," Moir said. "I have so much respect for you and you have shown me what it means to be a true servant-leader. You are a man of high integrity and character and I have grown so much watching your leadership permeate throughout the entire athletic department. I think it is unique to find an athletic director like Mr. Barnhart – he can personally name each student-athlete and really takes the time to get to know us. It was not uncommon for Mr. Barnhart to stop and ask me about my family or for us to spend time talking about projects in the community we are involved in."

The team and individual accolades didn't happen overnight and they haven't occurred by accident, either. They have been the result of a steady, methodical process which Barnhart implemented upon his arrival at Kentucky in 2002.

Barnhart began by providing funds for full coaching staffs and scholarship allotments for all 22 UK sports.

Next, Barnhart directed the construction of new facilities, including the Joe Craft Center; new stadiums for track and field, softball and soccer; the UK Golf House; and the Wildcat Coal Lodge dormitory. Commonwealth Stadium had major renovations completed in 2015 and a new football practice/support complex opened in 2016. A new baseball stadium and indoor tennis facility are on the drawing board. All totaled, Barnhart has completed or is in the process of more than $300 million of facility construction.

Additional milestones have occurred under Barnhart's guidance. UK athletes have set records for graduation rates and maintained a perfect mark in the 12-year history of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate.

Even with the department's growth and the increasingly competitive nature of college sports, UK Athletics has remained financially self-sufficient under Barnhart's management, operating with a balanced budget and with the help of no state or University funds. Seeing pressing facility needs on campus as well, Barnhart has made a $65 million commitment for athletics to fund nearly two-thirds of the new Academic Science Building. He also directs an annual $1.7-million contribution to the University's scholarship program. Millions more dollars from the athletics budget stay on campus each year through athletic scholarship payments, administrative support payments, merchandise royalties, and other avenues.

Barnhart's legacy at UK includes helping develop administrators who have gone on to become athletics directors at nationally prominent universities, including Greg Byrne of Arizona, Mark Coyle at Minnesota, Rob Mullens at Oregon and Scott Stricklin at Florida.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kansas. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

In addition to the extraordinary achievements of his work world, reaching new heights is also a theme of his personal life. An avid mountain climber, Barnhart has scaled Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa, along with two of the most challenging peaks in the United States, Mount Rainier in Washington and the Grand Tetons in Wyoming. Impactful in community service, Barnhart has taken part in mission trips and is on the national advisory board of K-Love Radio.

Barnhart's family includes his wife, Connie; three children, Blaire, Scott, and Kirby Willoughby; Kirby's husband, McKenzie, and a grandson, Cooper.

Mitch Barnhart has led UK Athletics to five consecutive top-30 finishes in the Directors' Cup national all-sports standings.

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th President of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2011. Under his leadership, the $3.5 billion flagship and land grant research university has gained significant momentum in fulfilling its multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

To embolden the institution's enduring legacy, Dr. Capilouto has led a process to enrich UK's academic experience by increasing institutional investments in student financial aid, developing the Lewis Honors College, expanding Living-Learning Communities, and rebuilding academic and community spaces. Because of his priorities, the University has enrolled nearly 400 National Merit, National Achievement and National Hispanic Scholars in the last several years – tripling the number of incoming Scholars and putting UK in the Top 10 public institutions enrolling these students.

Under Dr. Capilouto's leadership, the University of Kentucky is undergoing a significant physical transformation of its academic, research, residential, health care and community spaces. Through partnership, increased philanthropy and effective financial management, UK is self-financing the vast majority of its more than $1.9 billion infrastructure development.

Over the last five years, the University has completed, initiated or authorized construction on: 14 new residence halls; several dining facilities, including the 1,000-seat facility known as "the 90;" a $65 million renovated and expanded Gatton College of Business and Economics supported by donors and private philanthropy; a new $110 Academic Science Building financed, in-part, through a $65 million partnership with UK Athletics; and a $120 million revitalized Commonwealth Stadium funded with Athletics revenue; a renovated and expanded Nutter Training Center financed by philanthropy; a $201 million renovation and expansion of the Student Center; $150 million to continue the fit-out of Chandler Hospital; a new home for the School of Art and Visual Studies; a new $265 million multi-disciplinary health sciences research facility in partnership with the state; and the renewal of the College of Law in partnership with donors and the state.

Research at the University of Kentucky is a dynamic enterprise encompassing a full spectrum of academic inquiry, including the humanities, social sciences, traditional scholarship and emerging technologies. UK's research faculty, staff and students are establishing UK as one of the nation's most prolific public research universities in the nation. In 2013, UK's Markey Cancer Center was designated as a National Cancer Center by the National Cancer Institute; placing UK among an elite group of 22 research universities with the triple crown of federal research awards: NCI-designation, the Clinical and Translational Sciences Award and a federally supported Alzheimer's Disease Center.

Essential to the service mission of the University of Kentucky is the advanced patient care and outreach provided by UK HealthCare. As the flagship academic-medical center in the region, UK serves patients through a network of health care professionals around the Commonwealth while providing acute, sub-specialty medical care at UK Chandler Hospital. In 2013, UK HealthCare was distinguished as a Top Performer by the Joint Commission, the largest medical accreditation body in the nation, and won a Rising Star Award from the University Health System Consortium.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health -- a period of remarkable growth and transformation at one of the leading academic and health sciences institutions in the South.

Dr. Capilouto holds several undergraduate and graduate degrees from schools within the University of Alabama system, and a Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.M.D.) a former Dean of the UAB School of Dentistry, have one daughter.

SEASON RECAP

Behind the Fabulous Five of Ralph Beard, Wah Wah Jones, Alex Groza, Kenny Rollins and Cliff Barker, the 1947-48 Kentucky men's basketball team went 36-3 en route to win the school's first national championship.

Kentucky got off to a quick start to the season, winning its first seven games before falling to Temple in a one-point buzzer-beater. The Wildcats, however, won 27 of their next 28 games, including a 58-38 victory retribution matchup over the Temple Owls. All five of the Wildcat starters were recognized by the Southeastern Conference with Jones, Beard and Rollins being named to the first team. Beard was also named the True Magazine Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

Following the regular season, the Wildcats breezed through the SEC Tournament, winning the four games by a total of 111 points, including a narrow 54-53 victory over Georgia Tech in the championship game. The NCAA Tournament went much as the conference tourney did. Jones scored 19 points in the opener over Columbia and then UK won an eight-point decision over Holy Cross in the second round to advance to the championship game against Baylor. Groza poured in 23 points for the 58-42 victory over the Bears.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

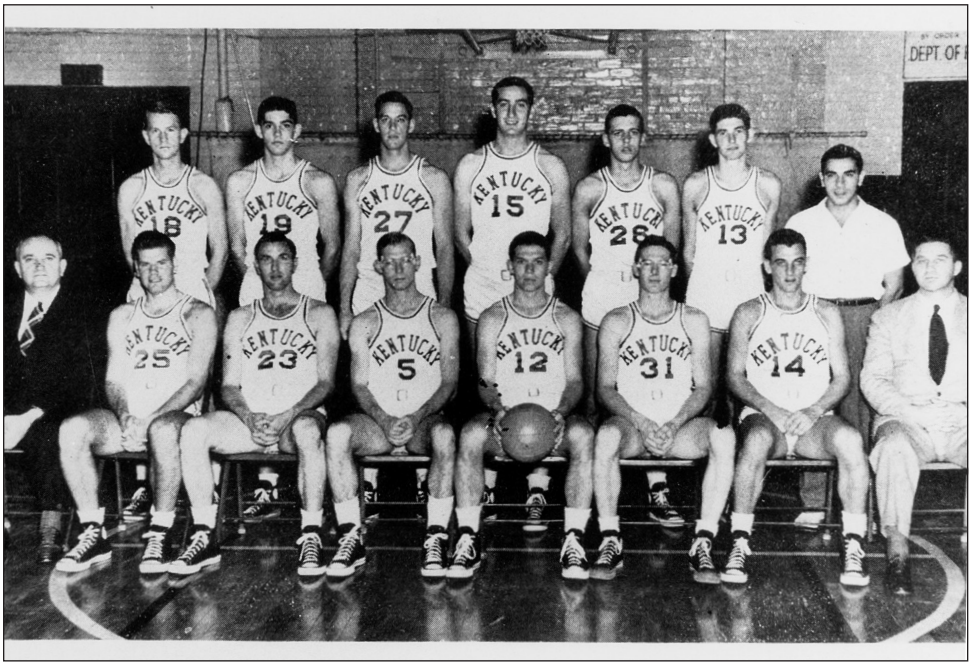

Alex Groza and Ralph Beard combined for 26 points and the Wildcats' defense held the Bears to 16 first-half points to capture UK's first NCAA title.

The title victory enabled the Wildcats to become only the second team ever to win both the NIT and NCAA titles. UK, which finished the season at 34-2, won the NIT title in 1946.

Paced by Groza and Beard, the Wildcats turned a 29-16 halftime lead into a 44-28 bulge midway through the second half. After Baylor rallied to cut the lead to 11, UK put the game out of reach as Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones scored four points to give the Wildcats a 15-point lead.

In addition to Groza and Beard, the Wildcats also got nine points apiece from Jones and Kenneth Rollins.

SEASON RECAP

With a familiar four starters returning from the Fabulous Five, the 1948-49 Kentucky men's basketball team appeared poised to make a second consecutive title run. The Wildcats raced through the regular season with only one loss, and only three teams throughout the year came within even 10 points of Kentucky. Alex Groza led the team in scoring in 13 of its last 15 games and he broke a UK and SEC record with 38 points in a 95-40 win over Georgia on Feb. 21.

The team concluded the regular season with a 70-37 win over Vanderbilt at Alumni Gym, including a last-second 65-foot shot by Cliff Barker. The Cats again swept through the SEC Tournament in nearby Louisville, winning their opening-round game over Florida, 73-36. Kentucky outscored its SEC Tournament opponents by a total of 123 points in a four-game span, including a 68-52 win over Tulane in the conference final.

After being surprisingly upset in the first round of the NIT Tournament, the Wildcats had no trouble in NCAA play. Kentucky defeated Villanova, 85-72, and Illinois, 76-47, to advance to the national title game. Groza, Ralph Beard and Wah Wah Jones were all named All-America and Groza was named the tournament's MVP.

It was no surprise that when the first-ever Associated Press poll was released the following year, the Cats were ranked preseason No. 1.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

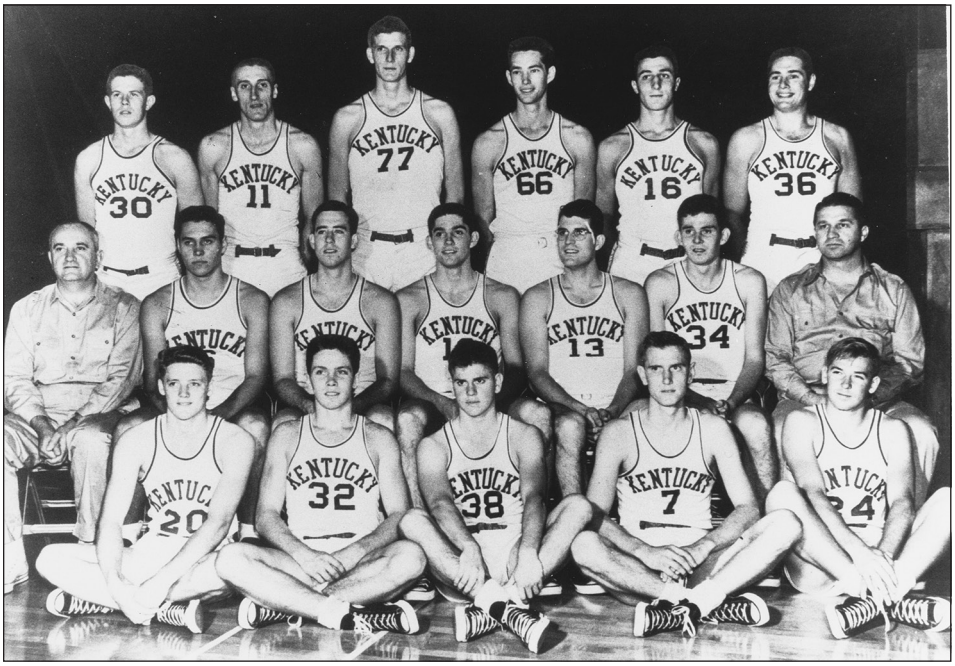

Paced by Alex Groza's 25 points and a defense that limited the Aggies to a mere nine field goals, the Wildcats were crowned NCAA champions for the second straight year.

Groza, a unanimous selection as the "Player of the Tournament," scored more than twice as many points as any other player. A&M's Jack Shelton was the game's only other player to score in double figures. He finished with 12 points.

The Aggies, coached by Hank Iba, led 5-2, but the Wildcats scored seven straight points, five by Groza, and never trailed again as they took a 25-20 first-half lead.

UK extended the lead to 31-21 early in the second half and coasted the rest of the way.

SEASON RECAP

Kentucky opened the 1950-51 season on an 84-game home winning streak and the Wildcats began the year by moving from the antiquated Alumni Gym to the new 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum that was designed to commemorate the Kentuckians who died in World WarI, World War II and the Korean War.

Though illness plagued the team and its coach throughout the season, Kentucky compiled a 32-2 record and its third national title in four years. UK defeated archrival Louisville by 11 points, 79-68, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament before breezing by St. John's in the next round. After posting a narrow 76-74 victory over Illinois in the East Regional championship, the Cats toppled Kansas State, 68-58, in the championship game.

Seven-foot center Bill Spivey led Kentucky, scoring 19.2 points per game during the season. He was followed by the junior duo of Shelby Linville and Bobby Watson, who each averaged 10.4 points per game. The Cats outscored their opponents by 757 points in UK's third championship season.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

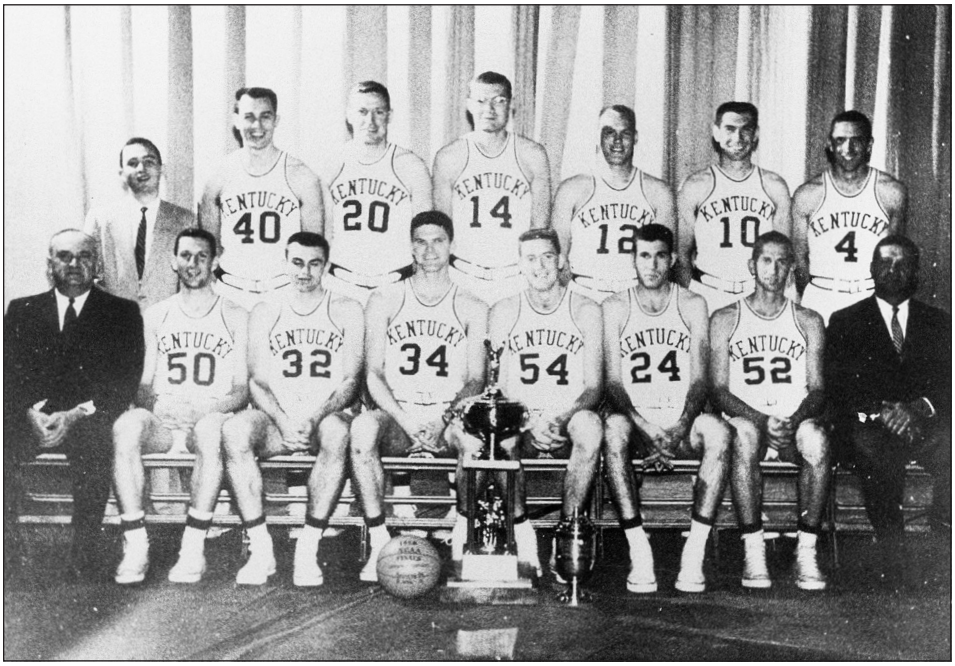

Bill Spivey scored 22 points and an ailing Cliff Hagan sparked the Wildcats to their third NCAA title.

With a squad consisting of only six healthy players — Walt Hirsch was ineligible and Hagan was plagued by an infected throat — the Wildcats hardly looked like championship material as Kansas State broke out to a 20-12 lead.

It was then that Rupp inserted the ailing Hagan. It was a move that may have proved the difference as the sophomore forward sparked a rally that saw UK cut the Kansas State lead to 29-27 at the half.

Led by Hagan and Spivey, who dominated the boards, UK outscored Kansas State 41-29 in the second half to complete the come-from-behind victory.

SEASON RECAP

After finishing the previous year with a second-round NCAA tournament loss on their home court, the 1957-58 Kentucky Wildcats, behind the starting lineup of Vernon Hatton, Johnny Cox, John Crigler, Adrian Smith and Ed Beck, lost two of their final five games and appeared an unlikely contender for the national championship.

The Cats were led by Hatton's 17.1 points per game and Cox's 14.9 points per game. Hatton proved his effectiveness as a clutch player by sinking a 47-foot shot at the end of regulation to send UK into overtime against Temple, a game that the Wildcats would win 85-83 after three extra periods. Kentucky breezed past the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, held in Lexington, with wins over Miami of Ohio and Notre Dame. UK then faced Temple in the next round and again won a close 61-60 decision.

The Wildcats defeated Seattle 84-72 in an anti-climactic national title, the fourth and final national championship for Adolph Rupp.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Senior Vernon Hatton scored 30 points and the Wildcats overcame a 25-point, 19-rebound performance by Elgin Baylor to capture their fourth NCAA championship.

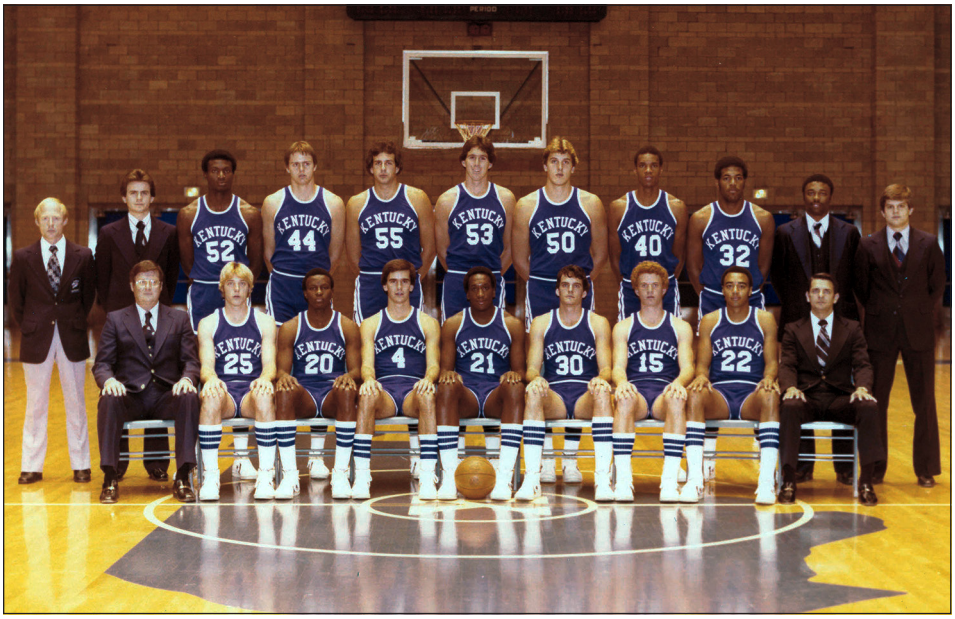

Led by Hatton and Johnny Cox, who finished with 24 points, the Wildcats twice battled back from 11-point deficits to gain the victory.

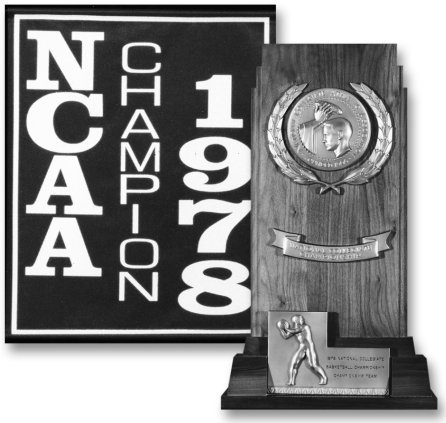

Trailing for much of the game, UK grabbed its first lead with 6:08 left when Don Mills hit a hook shot to give the Wildcats a 61-60 lead. Moments later, Cox hit a jump shot to make it 63-60 and UK never trailed again.

John Crigler added 14 points and 14 rebounds for the victors. Mills and Adrian Smith finished with nine and seven points, respectively.

Aside from Baylor, Seattle received 17 points from Charley Brown and 16 from Jerry Frizzell.

SEASON RECAP

Regular-season losses to Alabama and LSU were the only blemishes on Kentucky's 1977-78 record, as UK and senior Jack Givens, who averaged 18.1 points per game, went 30-2 for its first NCAA title in 20 years. UK outscored its opponents by 459 points during the season and were aided by 14.4 points per game from 6-foot-10 center Rick Robey.

Originally hailed as an underachieving team, Kentucky overcame obstacles to win the SEC championship and the first NCAA title under head coach Joe B. Hall. The Cats won their last eight regular-season games, including a 92-70 win over UNLV in the home finale, led by 26 points from Robey, and a 78-68 win over Vanderbilt in Nashville, Tennessee.

Characteristically, the Cats had no trouble with their early-round competition in the NCAA Tournament, as Florida State, Miami (Ohio) and Michigan State fell along the way. UK met up with Arkansas in the national semifinal game, which the Wildcats won 64-59, before defeating Duke, 94-88, in the championship final.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Senior Jack Givens put on one of the finest individual performances in NCAA championship history in leading the Wildcats past the Blue Devils.

With many Kentucky fans among the crowd of 18,271 chanting "Goose, Goose," Givens scored 41 points, three short of the record for a championship game, to help the Wildcats to their fifth NCAA title and first in 20 years.

Givens' dominance was clearly evident in the first half as he scored 23 points, including UK's last 16 of the half, to turn a 29-28 UK lead into a 45-38 cushion. It was a deficit from which the Blue Devils would not recover.

Overall, Givens made 18 of 27 field goal attempts, 5 of 8 free throws, and added eight rebounds and three assists.

SEASON RECAP

Kentucky strung together 25 consecutive wins, including a 16-0 mark in Southeastern Conference play, midway through the 1995-96 season and rolled to its sixth national championship, the first under head coach Rick Pitino. The dynamic duo of Tony Delk (17.8 ppg) and Antoine Walker (15.2 ppg) led the team dubbed "The Untouchables" by Pitino.

A 10-point loss to UMass in the second game of the season would be the only smudge on the Wildcats' schedule as they entered SEC Tournament play. UK posted dominating wins over Florida (100-76) and Arkansas (95-75) in the first two rounds of the tournament, but an upstart Mississippi State team shot 60 percent from the 3-point arc to hand UK a shocking 84-73 loss in the title game.

Kentucky still earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament's Dallas Regional and stomped San Jose State and Virginia Tech to easily advance to the Sweet 16. The competition proved no tougher in the next two rounds as the Wildcats outscored Utah and Wake Forest by a combined 62 points. A rematch with UMass awaited in the national semifinal, but Kentucky had no trouble with John Calipari's Minutemen, surpassing them 81-74. The Wildcats, behind six first-half 3-pointers by Delk, defeated Syracuse, 76-67, in the national title game.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Tony Delk tied a championship game record with seven 3-pointers and the Wildcats withstood a late Orangemen rally to win UK's sixth national title before a capacity crowd of 19,229 in the Continental Airlines Arena at the Meadowlands.

Delk, the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, canned seven of 12 3-pointers to lead the Cats with 24 points. But after Syracuse had cut the lead to two, 64-62, with 4:46 remaining, a Delk misfire was tipped in by Walter McCarty to extend UK's lead to four. After holding the Orangemen on the next possession, Derek Anderson drained a 3 to push the lead to seven. SU would get no closer than five in the final minutes.

Delk was joined on the Final Four All-Tournament team by freshman Ron Mercer, who was sensational off the bench, scoring a career-high 20 points on 8-of-12 shooting from the field, including 3 of 4 from 3-point range.

Halftime: Utah 41, UK 31

SEASON RECAP

The team that became known as the "Comeback Cats," the 1997-98 Kentucky Wildcats captured their second NCAA title in three years after overcoming a 10-point halftime deficit against Utah in the national championship game. UK was 10-3 in games decided by 10 points or less and 7-1 in games decided by three points or less during the season.

Kentucky's players provided a balanced attack, as all five starters averaged more than nine points per game with senior guard Jeff Sheppard averaging 13.7 points per game and junior center Nazr Mohammed averaging 12.0 points per game. The Wildcats rolled to an 86-56 victory over South Carolina in the SEC Tournament final and then sprinted past South Carolina State, St. Louis and UCLA in the first three rounds of the NCAA Tournament.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Kentucky battled back from a 41-31 halftime deficit to Utah — the largest halftime margin ever overcome in an NCAA title game — to claim the school's seventh national championship before 40,509 fans in the Alamodome.

Utah was propelled to the early lead thanks to a 24-6 rebounding advantage in the first half. But Heshimu Evans sparked the "Comeback Cats" off the bench with seven straight points early in the second half. Later, Final Four Most Outstanding Player Jeff Sheppard canned a baseline jumper with 4:54 remaining to give UK a 65-64 lead. The exhausted Utes then missed 11 consecutive field goals as the Wildcats claimed their second NCAA championship in three years.

Scott Padgett joined Sheppard on the All-Final Four team after scoring 17 points. UK outrebounded the Utes 18-15 in the second half.

Halftime: UK 41, KU 27

SEASON RECAP

On the heels of a school record 30-win regular season, including a 24-game winning streak and 16-0 mark in league play, Kentucky earned the overall No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats defeated in-state rival Louisville, 69-61, to earn a spot in the championship game en route to Kentucky's eighth national title and John Calipari's first.

The Wildcats scoring was as balanced as ever with five players averaging double figures, led by Anthony Davis' 14.2. Doron Lamb (13.7), Terrence Jones (12.3), Michael Kidd-Gilchrist (11.9) and Marquis Teague (10.0) rounded out UK's top five in scoring.

Davis finished with a 10.4 rebounding average and a national-best 4.7 blocks per game shattering the school, SEC and NCAA freshman records for blocks in a season.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Kentucky's top freshman, Anthony Davis, had a rough shooting night, but John Calipari coached this team to a wire-to-wire victory to cap a season that cried for no less than a championship for their ol' Kentucky home.

Doron Lamb led the Wildcats with 22 points, including back-to-back 3-pointers that put them up by 16 with 10 minutes left.

The Jayhawks, kings of the comeback all season, fought to the finish and trimmed that deficit to five with 1:37 left. But Kentucky made five free throws down the stretch to seal the win.

Michael Kidd-Gilchrist was another headliner, creating space for himself to score all 11 of his points in the first half.

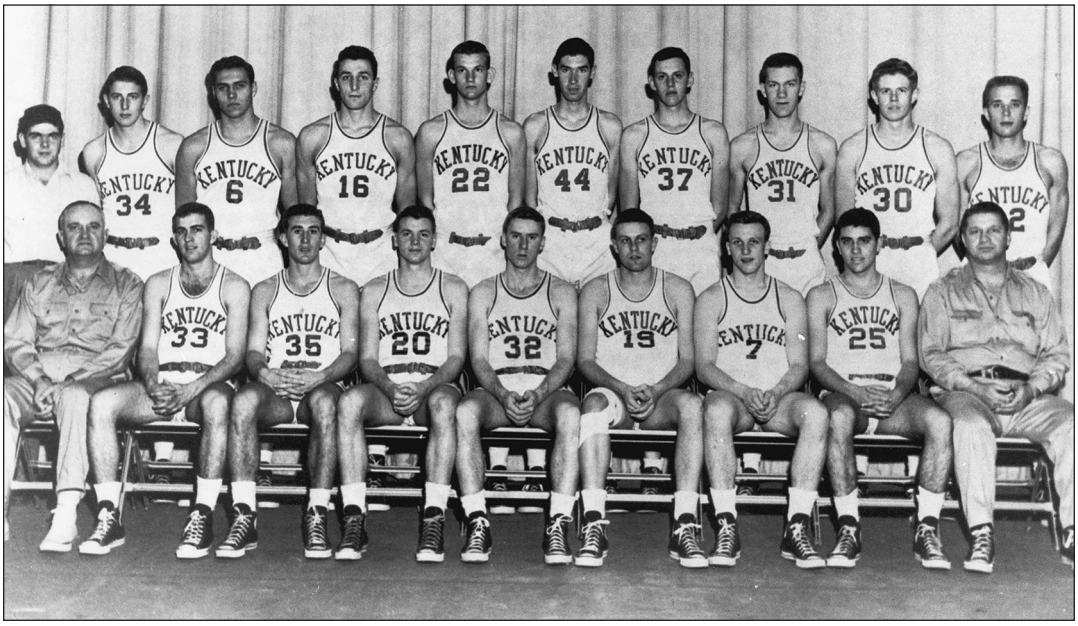

Davis, meanwhile, might have had the most dominating six-point night in the history of college basketball, earning the nod as the most outstanding player. He finished with 16 rebounds, six blocks, five assists and three steals - and made his only field goal with 5:13 left in the game. It was a surefire illustration of how the 6-foot-10 freshman could exert his will on a game even on a rare night when the shots weren't falling.

THE HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

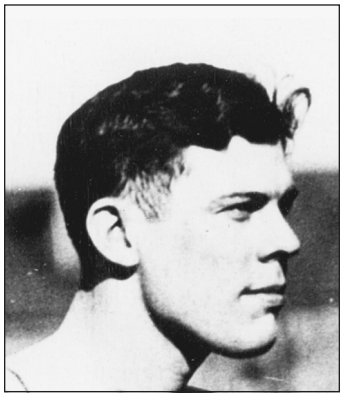

Founded in Los Angeles in the mid-1930s by Bill Schroader and Paul Helms, the Helms Foundation researched records to rank the nation's top teams dating back to 1901. From 1939, when the NCAA Tournament started, the Helms and NCAA champions were the same, except for 1939, '40, '44, '54. In addition to its NCAA Championship years of 1948, '49, '51, '58, '78, '96 and '98, Kentucky was named the Helms national champion in 1933 (20-3) and 1954 (25-0).

Kentucky players Forest Sale (1933) and Leroy Edwards (1935) were named Helms National Players of the Year.

Adolph Rupp

UK Record: 876-190 (82.2%), 41 years* | 1931-72
Alma Mater (Year): Kansas (1923)
Hometown: Halstead, Kan.
Born: Sept. 2, 1901 | Died: Dec. 10, 1977 (age 76)

A former UK media guide began, "In the storied land of Kentucky Colonels, there dwelled but one Baron, a man of consummate pride and a molder of powerful teams which for more than four decades made the name University of Kentucky synonymous with the game of basketball."

Tutored by the great Phog Allen at Kansas and a student of the game under Dr. James Naismith, Rupp learned his craft at an early age. After leaving the high school ranks in Freeport, Illinois, to take the UK job in 1930, the "man in the brown suit" became the winningest coach in all of college basketball. He was an innovator of the fast break, a trademark of the Wildcats even today. To become the winningest coach in his sport, Rupp passed his mentor, Coach Allen, on March 12, 1966, with his 747th victory against Dayton in the Mideast Regional. He achieved the top ranking when he passed Western Kentucky's E.A. Diddle with victory No. 760 on Feb. 18, 1967, at Mississippi State.

He finished with 876 wins when he retired in 1972, a mark that stood for 25 years until North Carolina's Dean Smith moved ahead in 1997.

Among the many UK victories were four NCAA titles (1948, '49, '51 and '58), one Olympic Gold Medal (1948), one NIT championship (1946), 27 Southeastern Conference titles, and his Wildcats were voted No. 1 in the final polls on six different occasions.

Rupp coached some of America's best – Sale, Beard, Groza, Hagan, Ramsey, Cox, Hatton, Nash, Riley and Issel. Thirty-two of his Cats were voted All-Americans 50 times and 52 players were honored 91 times as All-SEC performers.

His teams were unmatched in league play, earning a 400-74 (84.4 percent) record against SEC competition. In the conference tournament, Rupp's Wildcats were 57-6, winning 13 titles in 19 appearances.

Before the end of his 42-year career, the four-time National Coach of the Year was inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame in 1969. Rupp also earned SEC Coach of the Year honors on seven occasions.

Joe B. Hall

UK Record: 297-100 (74.8%), 13 years | 1973-85
Alma Mater (Year): Kentucky (1955)
Hometown: Cynthiana, Ky.
Born: Nov. 30, 1928

Joe B. Hall, who grew up just 20 minutes north of the University of Kentucky campus in Cynthiana, had the unenviable task of following the legendary Adolph Rupp, who was forced to retire at age 70. But Hall, the former Rupp assistant, met the challenge head on, coaching three teams to the Final Four (1975, '78 and '84) and winning the 1978 NCAA championship, the school's fifth title and first in 20 seasons.

Hall began his association with Kentucky as a student-athlete during the "Fabulous Five era." He played one year of junior varsity and one year of varsity basketball before transferring to the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee, where he finished his eligibility and set a single-game scoring record. Following his college career, Hall toured Europe with the Harlem Globetrotters in 1951, but later returned to UK and completed his degree requirements.

His coaching career began at Shepherdsville (Kentucky) High School in 1956. It continued on to Regis College in Denver, where he spent five years (57-50 record), and Central Missouri State, where he recorded a 19-6 mark in one season before returning to UK as an assistant to Rupp on July 1, 1965.

As the UK head coach, Hall won National Coach of the Year honors in 1978 and four SEC Coach of the Year awards. He had seven players win All-America honors 11 times and nine Wildcats were voted All-SEC on 18 occasions.

Hall's squads recorded a 172-62 (73.5 percent) record versus SEC competition during the regular season, winning eight SEC titles in 13 seasons and one league tournament championship in six tries.

While Coach Rupp witnessed 37 of his players drafted by the NBA, Hall saw 23 players drafted during his 13-year tenure, five in the first round.

Retired, Hall still resides in Lexington.

Rick Pitino

UK Record: 219-50 (81.4%), 8 years | 1990-97
Alma Mater (Year): Massachusetts (1974)
Hometown: New York
Born: Sept. 18, 1952

Promising to win right away, the 36-year-old coach from the New York Knicks accepted the challenge of rebuilding the Kentucky basketball dynasty. Pitino came to UK with impressive credentials, having rebuilt Boston U., Providence and the Knicks. His first UK team, "Pitino's Bombinos," shocked the college basketball world by defeating Shaquille O'Neal, Chris Jackson and the No. 9-ranked LSU Tigers in Lexington en route to a surprising 14-14 record in 1989-90.

It was a glimpse into the future. The following year, UK finished with the best record in the SEC. Then in 1992, fresh off NCAA probation, the "Unforgettables" took eventual national champion Duke into overtime of the East Regional final before falling 104-103 in what many have labeled "the greatest college basketball game ever played."

In 1993, with Jamal Mashburn leading the charge, UK advanced to the Final Four for the first time in nine years, losing to Michigan in overtime. After an Elite Eight finish in '95, Pitino's squad became the team to beat in '96. Highlights included the school's first league championship in 10 seasons, a 27-game win streak, a top-three ranking nearly the entire season, and the crowning jewel, the school's sixth NCAA title.

After UK lost four players to the NBA Draft, Pitino's task of defending the national championship became more difficult after star-guard Derek Anderson severely injured his knee during the '97 season. But the Cats wouldn't fold, rolling to the title game before losing to Arizona in overtime.

Along the way, Pitino won five of six SEC Tournament championships, two ECAC Holiday Classics, the Maui Invitational and the Great Alaska Shootout. He had a 104-28 record versus SEC teams, winning two league crowns, and an amazing 17-1 record in the SEC tournament.

He coached three All-Americans and eight All-SEC performers. The NBA drafted eight of his Wildcats, six in the first round, including three lottery picks.

Following the national runner-up trophy in 1997, the former point guard at UMass left UK for the challenge of rebuilding the NBA's Boston Celtics.

Orlando "Tubby" Smith

UK Record: 263-83 (76.0%), 10 years | 1998-2007
Alma Mater (Year): High Point (N.C.) (1973)
Hometown: Scotland, Md.
Born: June 30, 1951

As Kentucky made its run to the NCAA's 2005 Elite Eight, national media members began to notice unusual traits about Tubby Smith's latest group of Wildcats. For instance, no player scored 15 or more points a game. No one averaged eight rebounds. As many as 13 players routinely saw action, often in the first half alone.

This team was selfless and versatile, yet extremely competitive, just like its coach, Orlando "Tubby" Smith.

In his 10 seasons in the Bluegrass, Smith won with McDonald's All-Americans and with unheralded prep talent. He won with future NBA stars and with walk-ons from within the Commonwealth. He won with experience and with new players.

In a nutshell, he won.

He arrived in Lexington in 1997, and guided Kentucky to one national championship, five SEC crowns and five SEC Tournament titles, with six Sweet 16 finishes in his 10 seasons. At the time, he totaled 100 wins quicker than any other Wildcat coach except Hall of Famer Adolph Rupp, reaching the plateau in 130 games. He won 76 percent of his games despite playing a schedule that annually ranked among the nation's best.

In NCAA Tournament play, Smith finished his career at UK with the sixth-best winning percentage (.690) among active coaches, trailing Duke's Mike Krzyzewski and Michigan State's Tom Izzo, among others, with a sterling 29-13 record.

Even more impressive, Smith averaged nearly 26 wins per season at Kentucky. In the SEC Tournament, he was 20-5 at UK, and he won a league championship seven times in his 10 years as head coach.

CHAMPIONSHIP COACHES

Kentucky head coach John Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and 15th Final Four. In doing so, he claimed his first national championship and his fourth appearance in the Final Four. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, '12, '14, '15).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the title, finishing the season with the nation's top-ranked team in field goal pct. defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA-record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference, the school's 45th SEC championship and extended his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games.

John Calipari

UK Record: 217-47 (82.2%), 7 years | 2010-Pres.
Alma Mater (Year): Clarion (1982)
Hometown: Moon Township, Pa.
Born: Feb. 10, 1959

Prior to guiding Kentucky to its eighth championship, Calipari quickly returned the greatest tradition in all of college basketball to its rightful spot.

Calipari also directed the 2015 squad to a 38-0 start, the best-ever in college basketball. He has led teams to four Final Fours in six seasons (2011-15) and won at least 25 games in all but one of his seven seasons. The Wildcats have claimed four regular-season SEC titles and four tournament titles.

Furthermore, 28 players have been drafted to the NBA with 21 going in the draft's opening round under his direction. All 14 players who have been eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years have received their degrees, including three players who have graduated in just three years.

HISTORY

RETIRED JERSEYS

As the videotape rolls through the history of the Kentucky basketball program, the highlights are countless.

Eight national championships. Numerous Southeastern Conference titles. Last-second shots. The trophies. The net cutting. Victory upon victory. The pictures and images continue to roll.

Year after year, the Wildcats have contended for national championships and produced a host of All-Americans. The UK program also has stocked the NBA with top young talent.

But the ultimate honor for a Wildcat player or coach is to have his jersey retired. Through the years, 43 former players, coaches and contributors have received this recognition.

According to former UK sports information director Russell Rice, the first jersey retired was Layton "Mickey" Rouse, an All-SEC guard who captained the 1940 UK squad. At the annual banquet following the season, Coach Adolph Rupp surprised Rouse when he presented him his entire uniform.

Following the 1949 season, Rupp honored the four seniors from the back-to-back national championship teams — Cliff Barker, Ralph Beard, Alex Groza and Wallace "Wah, Wah" Jones, along with 1948 team captain Kenny Rollins — by retiring their jerseys and stating that their numbers would never be worn again by a Kentucky player. It was then that they were tagged "the Fabulous Five" after Rupp made mention there would never be another team that "fabulous."

However, with the streamlining of jersey numbers by the NCAA, the jerseys are retired but the numbers remain active.

Two contributors have been selected for the basketball program's highest honor, including the late Cawood Ledford, the radio "Voice of the Wildcats" for 39 years. In 1997, Bill Keightley, the lovable and dedicated equipment manager known as "Mr. Wildcat," also was selected. And the great coaches have been honored as well — Rupp, Hall and Pitino.

Each selection has been presented with a framed jersey and a banner proudly hung from the Rupp Arena rafters.

An individual must be a member of the Hall of Fame to be eligible for jersey retirement. A committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, campus representatives, and current coaches and administrators elects new inductees each year. A subcommittee also considers possible jersey retirements.

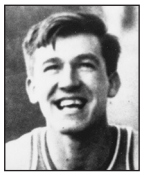

In recognition of outstanding contributions to the University of Kentucky basketball program, the UK Athletics Department has retired jerseys honoring the following:

ALL-AMERICANS

A total of 55 Wildcats have earned All-America honors, as recognized by the NCAA. Of those players, 21 have been named consensus First Team All-America 26 times. The following is a chronological listing of all UK basketball players who have been named to the NCAA-recognized All-America teams, beginning with forward Basil Hayden in 1921. The NCAA currently utilizes the Associated Press, the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and The Sporting News to determine consensus All-Americans.

UK ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

UK's Athletic Hall of Fame, organized in 2005, recognizes and honors persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the university athletic program. Athletes are required to wait five years after completing their Wildcat playing career before being eligible for the honor. The charter class was comprised of those individuals who had previously had their jersey retired at Rupp Arena, Commonwealth Stadium, Memorial Coliseum and Cliff Hagan Stadium.

NOTES:

- From 1933-1950 the SEC champion was determined by a tournament, except for 1935
- Only eight teams invited to participate
- Only six teams participated due to World War II
- Since 1951, when the round-robin schedule was introduced, the title has been decided by a winning percentage on the conference schedule. From 1951-1964 the round-robin schedule was 14 games
- From 1965-1966 and since 1992 the round-robin schedule has been 16 games. From 1967-1990 the round-robin schedule was 18 games. In 1979 the SEC Tournament was renewed with the winner receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament
- In 2008, the tournament was moved to Georgia Tech's Alexander Memorial Coliseum after a tornado hit the Georgia Dome during second round action on Friday, March 14
- In 2013, the league discontinued divisions with the addition of Missouri and Texas A&M

* As part of sanctions imposed upon the UK basketball program in 1989, the NCAA ordered Kentucky to erase from the record three NCAA tournament games from the 1987-88 season. The presidents of the Southeastern Conference institutions voted to strip Kentucky of the 1987-88 SEC regular season and SEC Tournament championships. Kentucky was not forced to forfeit any of those regular season or tournament games.

John Wall, Patrick Patterson and the 2009-10 Wildcats celebrate the 2010 SEC Tournament title.

Kentucky 67, Florida 50
March 7, 2015
LEXINGTON, Ky — Already off to the best start in school and SEC history, the Wildcats put an exclamation point on a historic regular season with a perfect 31-0 record. The Wildcats became the first team from a power five conference to go undefeated in the regular season since Indiana did so in 1976. UK also marched through the SEC with an undefeated mark for the 15th time in school history and set a Rupp Arena record with 19 wins.

VENUES

RUPP ARENA

Adolph Rupp was synonymous with winning. As coach of Kentucky, he was a pioneer in the Wildcats' fast-break offense while becoming the winningest coach the game had ever seen.

The site that now serves as a tribute to his outstanding coaching accomplishments – Rupp Arena – has become one of the most recognizable gymnasiums in the world while serving as home to college basketball's most storied program.

Now in its 41st season as the Kentucky Wildcats' home court, the facility has seen UK win nearly 90 percent of its home games since it was opened in 1976.

Long considered the mecca of college basketball, Rupp Arena received a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that has enhanced the fan experience and once again made it one of the premier venues in all of college basketball. The most noteable updates include:

- State-of-the-art Daktronics center-hung video board
- 15mm ribbon boards
- Replaced 16mm LED corner video boards with 6mm LED video boards to produce HD quality image
- L Acoustic Line Array audio speaker system
- Total sanding and repainting of the floor to reflect UK's updated branding and logo
- New basketball goals and new shot clocks
- Added press box seating to the east side of the arena
- Replaced LED scorer's table with 6mm version and moved the old 10mm scorer's table to the opposite side of the floor for radio broadcast seating
- Replaced static ad panels in lower four corners of the arena with LED ad panels

Following the 2012 season, the Wildcats received a $3.1 million renovation to their locker room. Funded with private donations, the facility features the actual floor from the 2012 championship game. It has its own kitchen and dining area, as well as hot and cold tubs inlaid with the UK logo. There is also a recruiting room that is available to all 22 sports at the University of Kentucky.

Since the fall of 1976, the arena in downtown Lexington has served as home to four national championship teams at Kentucky. Six others have advanced to the Final Four. Thirteen seasons have witnessed the Cats go unbeaten at home.

It has played host to more than 600 UK games, more than 30 KHSAA Sweet Sixteens, a number of NBA exhibitions, 12 Men's NCAA Tournaments, three Southeastern Conference Tournaments and two Ohio Valley Conference Tournaments.

A new floor was installed in 2001. With so many unforgettable moments, the old floor still maintained a value to hoop fans across the Bluegrass and beyond. Therefore, officials made pieces of the relic available for public sale, with proceeds going to the UK Basketball Museum, the KHSAA and to help offset the costs of the new playing floor. Thanks to an auction of additional sections, like coaching boxes and lettered end zones, the old floor generated more than $250,000. Midcourt of the old floor rests in the main entrance of the Lexington Center.

When assembled, the court lies 118 feet below the ceiling and is made of a high-grade northern maple. The floor can be removed and an ice rink can be constructed for ice shows or hockey games thanks to a $2.5 million renovation during the summer of 1996.

But the playing surface is just one aspect of the impressive home of the Cats. Situated in downtown Lexington, Rupp Arena has played host to several premier basketball events. In March of 1985, all roads led to Lexington for the NCAA Final Four as Villanova shocked Georgetown in a memorable finale.

In 1986, Rupp played host to both the SEC Tournament and the NCAA Women's Final Four. On numerous other occasions, the arena has served as one stop en route to the NCAA title game. Starting in 2016, Rupp Arena will host three straight NCAA women's regional rounds.

An awesome structure in sight and scope, the arena is divided into two seating areas. The lower level features 10,000 cushioned theater seats. The upper level has 13,000 seats on epoxy-coated metal bleachers. The latter can be visually isolated to provide more natural setting for small shows.

Built by the city of Lexington, the arena is the major portion of the $53 million Lexington Center complex, which includes an expanded convention-exhibition hall, a 50-store tri-level enclosed shopping mall and a Hyatt Regency Hotel.

In January 2001, the Wildcats began utilizing a new lights-out introduction, featuring a video presentation and indoor fireworks.

NOW IN ITS 41ST SEASON AS THE HOME COURT OF KENTUCKY BASKETBALL, THE FACILITY HAS SEEN UK WIN NEARLY 90 PERCENT OF ITS HOME GAMES SINCE IT OPENED IN 1976.

ALUMNI GYM

ALUMNI GYM FACTS

Lexington, Ky.
Won 247, Lost 24

Memorial Coliseum is often referred to as "the house that Rupp built," but Alumni Gym is actually where Kentucky basketball began. The Wildcats' current home, Rupp Arena, was dedicated to the legendary coach in 1976, but the rich Kentucky basketball tradition began 26 years before the ink was even dry on the Memorial Coliseum plans.

In 1923, the Athletics Council members argued to the Board of Trustees that the old gym in Barker Hall's Buell Armory was unsafe for even the small number of people it could accommodate. Large crowds that had to be turned away and the probability that the popular state high school tournament would be moved away were two major factors that convinced the Board members that a new gym was in order.

Soon, the 2,800-seat structure was approved and the Alumni Association began efforts to raise the $100,000 needed for the Wildcats' new home.

Alumni Gym, which was complete for the 1924-25 season, holds claim to the birth of Wildcat basketball mania. The building served as the home floor for Wildcat squads until 1950. During that time, Kentucky lost only 24 of its 271 games, while laying the groundwork to become the winningest college basketball team in the nation.

When Rupp took the reins of the program in 1930, his squads established a home record of 201 victories against just eight losses in 19 seasons. He led the Cats to 84 consecutive wins in the confines of Alumni, including 64 consecutive victories in the Southeastern Conference.

During the last 17 seasons in the gym, the Wildcats won 12 conference tournament crowns and three Sugar Bowl championships. Through 26 seasons at the corner of the Avenue of Champions and South Limestone, Kentucky suffered only one losing season, while having 12 campaigns with three or fewer losses.

Kentucky basketball became a dynasty in 1948 after winning the SEC and NCAA championships and the coveted Olympic gold for the United States in London. Led by All-Americans Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones, with Rupp coaching from the sidelines, the United States squad soundly defeated France 65-21 in the gold medal game to become the 1948 World Champions.

In 1950, Kentucky's reign in Alumni Gym came to an end following the completion of the new Memorial Coliseum.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM

MEMORIAL FACTS
Lexington, Ky.
Won 307, Lost 38

For 26 years, the pulsating cries of "Rip 'em Up, Tear 'em Up, Give 'em Hell Wildcats" rang through one of the grandest and most historic of all basketball palaces — UK's Memorial Coliseum.

In 1941, when Dr. H.L. Donovan became president of the University, one of his first recommendations was for a building "that will properly take care of our athletics, our health service, physical education and recreation." From this beginning came the plan that culminated in the construction of 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum, a then-unparalleled edifice costing $3,925,000 by the time it was completed in 1950.

The Wildcats got off to a fine start in the Coliseum, winning every game played in the building for the first three seasons. When Georgia Tech upset Kentucky 59-58 on Jan. 8, 1955, it marked the first time the Wildcats had lost on their home court since the days of Alumni Gym, dating back more than 12 years to Jan. 2, 1943.

The loss ended a streak of 129 consecutive wins at home for Kentucky, an NCAA record that still stands today. In 26 years, Kentucky came away a loser only 38 times in 344 games.

From the early 1960s on, the sale of UK basketball season tickets was closed to the public with season ticket holders taking all the allotment other than student seating.

The huge building, which serves as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentuckians who lost their lives in World War I, World War II and the Korean War, covers an entire city block and contains as much space as a seven-story office building. Situated along the Avenue of Champions, the Coliseum still houses UK Athletics offices and is the home to Kentucky women's basketball, gymnastics and volleyball. The arena's current capacity is 8,500.

History was rewritten on March 17, 2009 when the Wildcats hosted UNLV in the first round of the NIT. Due to a scheduling conflict with Rupp Arena, Kentucky played its first game in Memorial Coliseum in over 30 years. In front of a capacity crowd, the Wildcats "rechristened" the venerable gym with a 70-60 win over the Running Rebels.

FREEDOM HALL

FREEDOM HALL FACTS
Louisville, Ky.
Won 60, Lost 18

The University of Kentucky has built an impressive record playing in Louisville. Besides winning 27 of their last 32 there, the Wildcats have won an NCAA championship (1958), nine Southeastern Conference Tournament titles, and have defeated some of the best teams from around the country before Wildcats fans in Louisville.

Kentucky began playing in Louisville in 1908, when the Cats lost to Louisville, 30-18. UK defeated the University of Louisville 26-13 in 1914, lost to the Cards 26-15 the following year and then defeated them 32-24 in 1916. Two years later, UK lost to Centre College, 22-12, in the state championship game played in Louisville. The Cats defeated the Cards there in 1922 and then did not play again in the Derby City until the 1936-37 season, when they dropped a 41-28 decision to Notre Dame.

Most of those early games were played in the Armory downtown before Freedom Hall was opened (1957). The Cats christened the new facility by capturing the 1958 NCAA title with victories over Temple and Seattle. The spacious arena has played host to Kentucky teams every year since. Kentucky's record at Freedom Hall now stands at 60-18.

The Wildcats' overall record in Louisville is 131-34.

Kentucky's most impressive string of victories in Louisville came when the Cats won 32 straight games between 1946 and 1951. Only 13 of the 41 teams Kentucky has faced in Louisville have been able to knock off the Cats. The longest running series has been with Notre Dame, with the Wildcats holding a 24-9 advantage over the Fighting Irish.

Kentucky established a then-Freedom Hall attendance record in 1993 as 20,060 fans jammed the arena to watch the Cats down the Indiana Hoosiers, 81-78. Seven years earlier, 20,053 fans looked on as the Cats faced SEC-rival Georgia on Dec. 30, 1986. UK fans continued a Wildcat tradition as more than 19,000 arrived the night before for a brief Kentucky shooting practice and to catch a glimpse of super-freshman Rex Chapman in December 1986. Three days earlier, the Wildcats had handed Louisville its worst defeat ever at Freedom Hall, 85-51.

UK played in the Derby City in its 2012 NCAA championship run, opening up the tournament with wins over Western Kentucky and Iowa State in the KFC Yum! Center. Kentucky returned in 2015 en route to its fourth Final Four in five seasons.

DAY IN THE LIFE OF A WILDCAT

HIGH MARKS

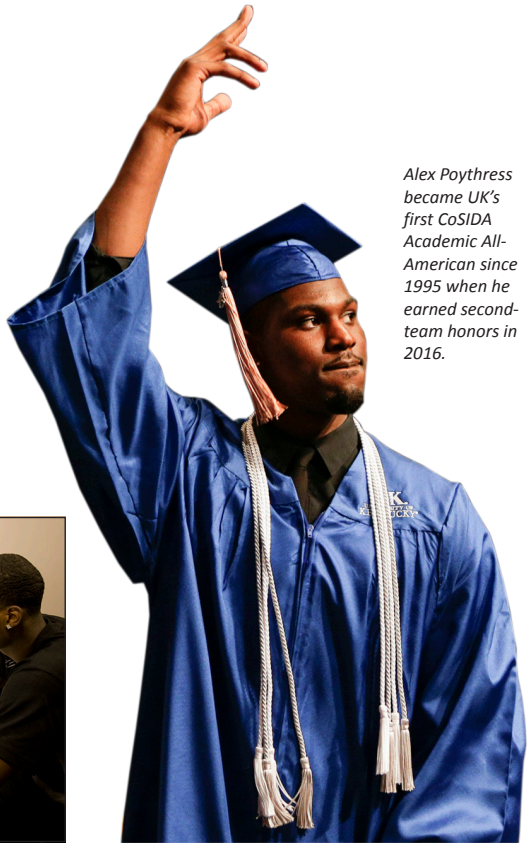

A day in the life of a Kentucky basketball player can be exhausting.

Between practices, games, classes and mandatory tutors, a Kentucky Wildcat's schedule can get pretty busy pretty quickly. That doesn't mean the expectations are lowered. Quite the opposite.

Just as they're expected to compete at the highest level on the basketball court, the Wildcats are expected to maintain exemplary grades in the classroom. Under John Calipari's watch, the Wildcats have done exactly that.

Following a 3.4 grade-point average in the 2013 spring semester – the highest in Coach Cal's tenure at UK – the Wildcats have continued to perform at high levels in the classroom. In seven of the last 11 semesters, including the spring of 2016, the Wildcats have topped a 3.0 grade point average as a team.

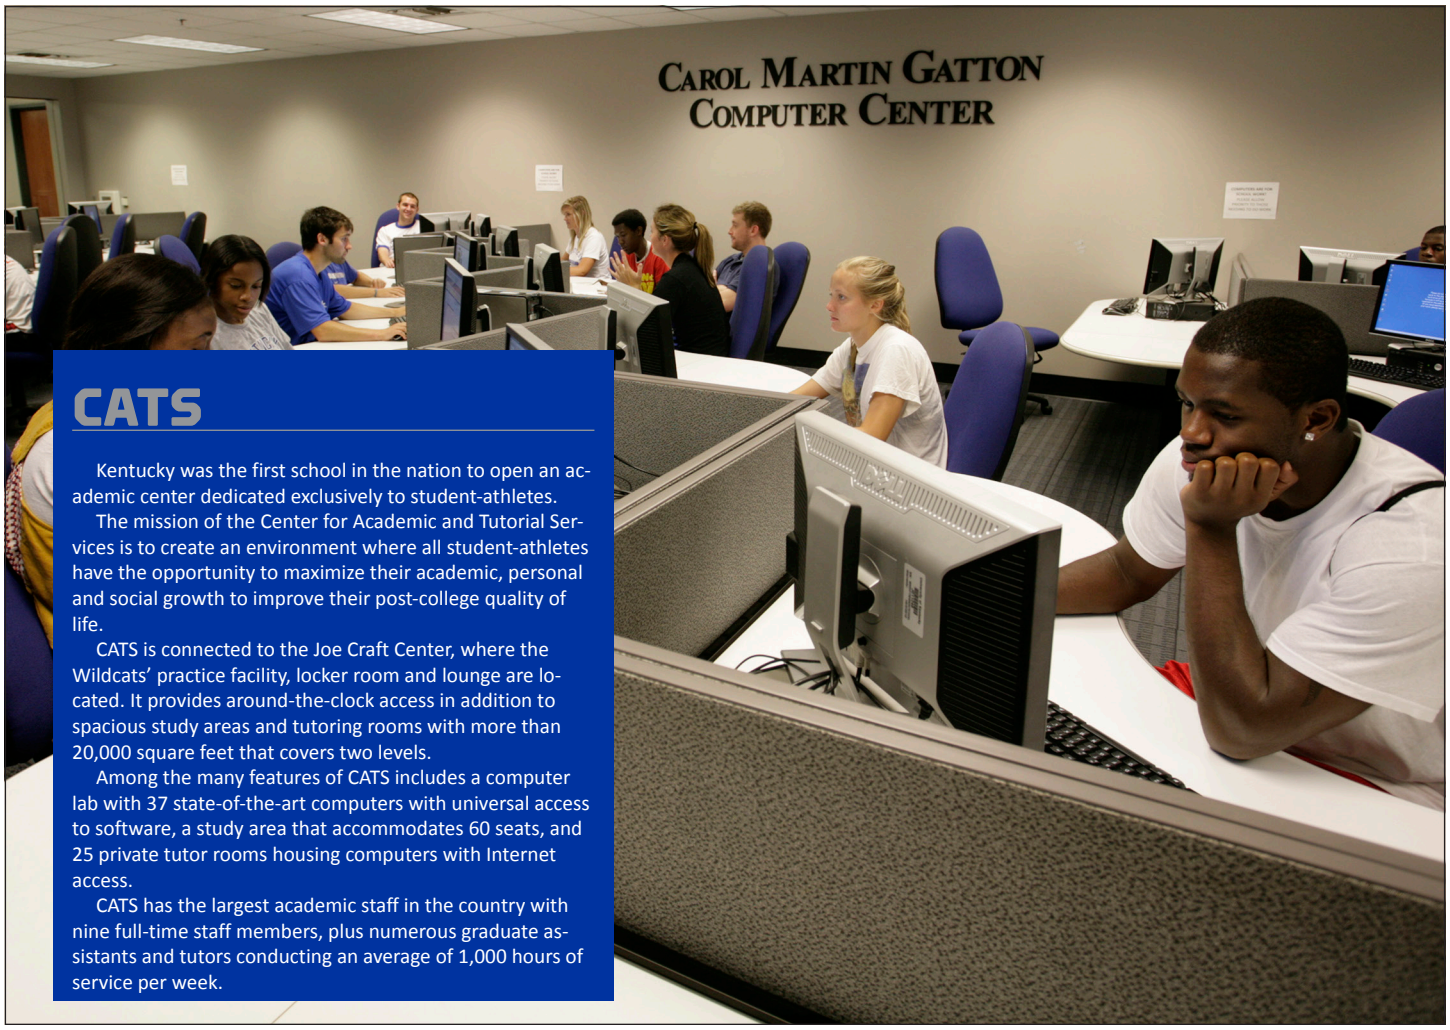

The Wildcats have around-the-clock access to the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services to help them manage their schoolwork while working with one of the best academic advisers in the country in Michael Stone.

Alex Poythress became UK's first CoSIDA Academic All-American since 1995 when he earned second-team honors in 2016.

CATS

Kentucky was the first school in the nation to open an academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes.

The mission of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services is to create an environment where all student-athletes have the opportunity to maximize their academic, personal and social growth to improve their post-college quality of life.

CATS is connected to the Joe Craft Center, where the Wildcats' practice facility, locker room and lounge are located. It provides around-the-clock access in addition to spacious study areas and tutoring rooms with more than 20,000 square feet that covers two levels.

Among the many features of CATS includes a computer lab with 37 state-of-the-art computers with universal access to software, a study area that accommodates 60 seats, and 25 private tutor rooms housing computers with Internet access.

CATS has the largest academic staff in the country with nine full-time staff members, plus numerous graduate assistants and tutors conducting an average of 1,000 hours of service per week.

While playing in the NBA, Jodie Meeks returned to Kentucky during several offseasons to complete his degree in business marketing in 2014.

SUCCEED AND PROCEED

John Calipari's "Succeed and Proceed" mentality is far more than just a way of saying Kentucky has a whole lot of NBA players. It encompasses the very essence of what it means to come to college at UK – to prepare young people for the rest of their lives.

Twenty-eight NBA Draft picks is only part of the story. An equally important piece is the 14 players who have graduated from Kentucky in Calipari's seven years in Lexington. Not a single player who went through his senior year of eligibility has failed to graduate from UK during Coach Cal's tenure.

Included in the remarkable graduation numbers are the success stories of Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress. All three of those players graduated in just three years.

And the recent success of players walking across the commencement stage with a degree in hand doesn't just pertain to Calipari's players. The current head coach has welcomed and even encouraged all players who haven't graduated to come back and get their degrees, offering a lifetime scholarship for all Wildcats. Jodie Meeks and Kelenna Azubuike have taken him up on the offer and have graduated during Calipari's tenure. Others are either working on their degree or have inquired about coming back.

Kentucky's emphasis on getting a diploma has shown up in the NCAA's recent Academic Progress Rates. In May, the Wildcats received an NCAA academic award for the second year in a row for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs with a four-year composite APR score of 1,000 (out of 1,000).

The Wildcats' score of 1,000 was both well above the NCAA postseason cutoff score of 930 as well as the Division I men's basketball average of 964.

The NCAA's APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR scores are a four-year composite, the most recent of which cover the 2011-12 through 2014-15 school years, which measure eligibility and retention and graduation.

The men's basketball team was one of 12 teams at UK to notch a perfect score of 1,000 for the 2014-15 school year (the 2015-16 scores won't be released until May 2017). Since Calipari arrived at Kentucky, his teams have posted one-year APR scores of 979 in 2009-10, 979 in 2010-11, 977 for the 2011-12 national championship season and 1,000 in each of the past three seasons.

WORLD-CLASS FACILITIES

While Rupp Arena serves as the mecca of college basketball arenas, Kentucky student-athletes also experience the finest practice facilities in the country.

The Wildcats have unlimited access to the practice facilities on campus, which include multiple practice courts, weight room, training room, lounge area and more. All are located at the Joe Craft Center, situated just a hop and a skip from the Wildcat Coal Lodge and the classroom buildings.

JOE CRAFT CENTER WEIGHT ROOM

Kentucky utilizes the best basketball weight room in the country, where every piece of equipment is individually selected to train athletes to their fullest.

The 3,000-square-foot Joe Craft Center weight room – under the direction of strength and conditioning coach Robert Harris – contains top-of-the-line equipment such as Power Lift, Pit Shark, Vertimax, Iron Grip, Woodway, Sorinex and Hammer Strength, in addition to an AlterG Anti-Gravity Treadmill that enables athletes to train harder without putting extra stress on joints and muscles.

The weight room was renovated prior to the 2009-10 season with contributions from donors, including Jesse and Patricia Rice. Every piece of weight room equipment in the Joe Craft Center is customized for the length and height of the UK men's basketball players.

JOE CRAFT CENTER

As the headquarters of UK Athletics and Kentucky basketball, the Joe Craft Center provides the Wildcats with a multi-purpose practice and training center unlike any other in the nation. Located right next to the Wildcat Coal Lodge and just minutes from Rupp Arena, it brings together the various aspects of UK's practice, athletics training and treatment, strength training and conditioning, team meetings, and film review – all under one roof.

The building is named after Hazard, Kentucky, native Joe Craft, who gave $6 million towards the $30 million state-of-the-art facility.

JOE CRAFT CENTER TRAINING CENTER

Wildcat student-athletes receive the very best care and treatment from a knowledgeable staff working with cutting-edge facilities.

With nearly 3,500 square feet, the UK training room at the Joe Craft Center provides Kentucky basketball players with the resources to stay in top physical shape, including a physician's office for private consultations.

In addition to rehabilitation and treatment equipment, UK's training room features a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy room with a Hydroworx unit (underwater treadmill), an eight-person hot tub and an eight-person cold tub.

WILDCAT COAL LODGE

Just steps away from the Joe Craft Center, the Wildcat Coal Lodge provides living space for Kentucky basketball players and managers, as well as other UK students.

Outside the Wildcat Coal Lodge is a 400-pound bronze statue of former Kentucky head coach Joe B. Hall (1973-85) meant to honor and commemorate the national championship coach, who helped bring about the idea of the Wildcat Lodge.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge opened before the 2012-13 season, replacing the previous Wildcat Lodge located on the other side of the Joe Craft Center.

Equipped with an eating area, pool table and a theater-style lounge area, the lodge is located just across the street from UK's academic buildings.

WILDCATS EXPOSURE

As the nation's most-watched college basketball program, the Kentucky Wildcats are televised from coast-to-coast on a regular basis. Almost every game since 1991 has been televised – nationally, regionally or statewide. During the 2016-17 season, every regular-season UK game will be televised on a national network, giving the Big Blue Nation access to Kentucky basketball game no matter what part of the country fans are located.

SOCIAL MEDIA PRESENCE

From the moment John Calipari stepped on Kentucky's campus and created a Twitter account, the University of Kentucky basketball team has been at the forefront of social media.

With more than 1.5 million Twitter followers, more than 550,000 Facebook likes and 250,000 Instagram followers, Coach Calipari is the leader in college athletics social media – and really it's not even close.

UK's team accounts are close behind with more than 400,000 Twitter followers, more than 500,000 Facebook likes and more than 150,000 Instagram followers.

Rather than run away from social media, Calipari has encouraged the men's basketball program to embrace it and to use it as a tool. The Wildcats go through an annual class to learn the dos and don'ts of social media, how to use social media to build a brand, how to use it to reach others, and more.

NIKE SWAG

Thanks to Nike's extensive research and product development, the Kentucky Wildcats stay on the cutting edge of quality and style with all of their gear.

All 22 sports at the University of Kentucky use Nike shoes and equipment. Over the course of a newly signed eight-year contract, one of the lengthiest contracts in collegiate sports, the Wildcats will receive millions of dollars worth of clothing and equipment.

In 2016-17, Kentucky will wear two new uniforms, which include a new all-white look for its home uniforms and a new all-blue look for its away games. Both uniforms will don the blue and white "pattern of excellence" checkerboard, which pays tribute to Kentucky's rich history of horse racing and is inspired from racking silks worn by 1973 Triple Crown winner Secretariat. As in years past, Kentucky will be one of a few, select schools to wear Nike's custom iD shoes, which coincide with its uniforms. Later in the season, UK and Nike will unveil an alternate third uniform.

"We've got a state that is all about hard work and effort, and we want people to understand that that's what it takes. If you put that jersey on, that's part of what it means at the University of Kentucky to represent the Commonwealth." – Mitch Barnhart, UK Athletics Director

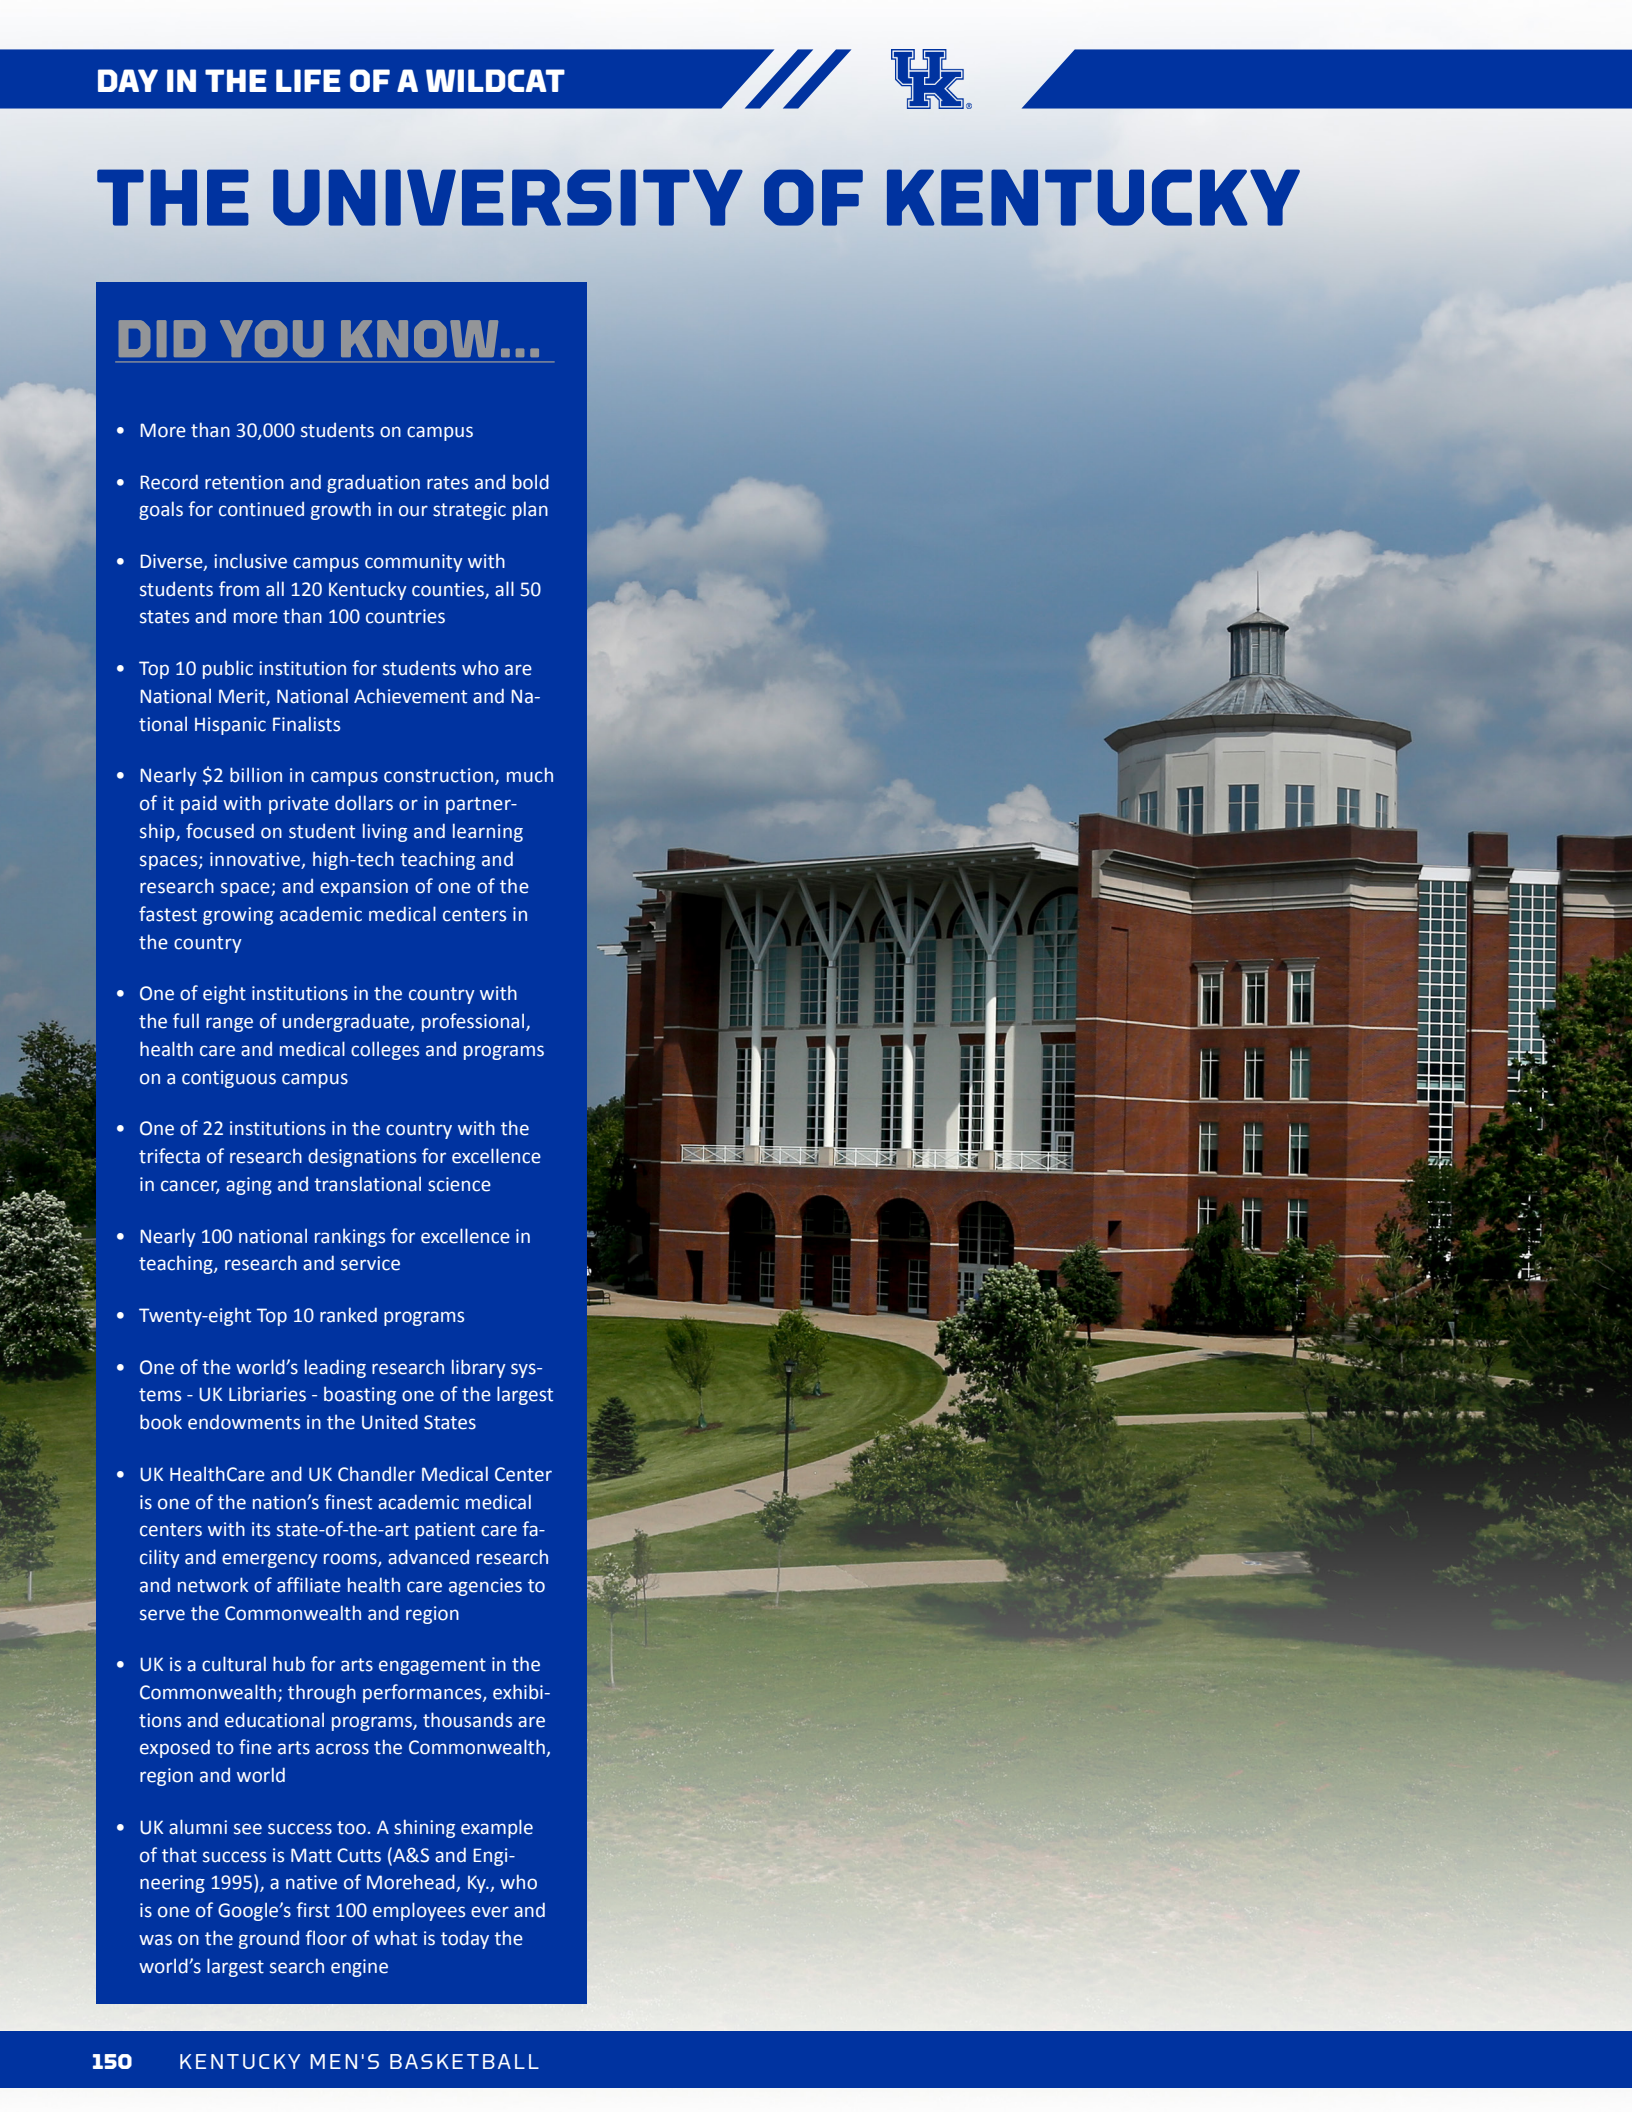

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

DID YOU KNOW...

- More than 30,000 students on campus
- Record retention and graduation rates and bold goals for continued growth in our strategic plan
- Diverse, inclusive campus community with students from all 120 Kentucky counties, all 50 states and more than 100 countries
- Top 10 public institution for students who are National Merit, National Achievement and National Hispanic Finalists
- Nearly $2 billion in campus construction, much of it paid with private dollars or in partnership, focused on student living and learning spaces; innovative, high-tech teaching and research space; and expansion of one of the fastest growing academic medical centers in the country
- One of eight institutions in the country with the full range of undergraduate, professional, health care and medical colleges and programs on a contiguous campus
- One of 22 institutions in the country with the trifecta of research designations for excellence in cancer, aging and translational science
- Nearly 100 national rankings for excellence in teaching, research and service
- Twenty-eight Top 10 ranked programs
- One of the world's leading research library systems - UK Libriaries - boasting one of the largest book endowments in the United States
- UK HealthCare and UK Chandler Medical Center is one of the nation's finest academic medical centers with its state-of-the-art patient care facility and emergency rooms, advanced research and network of affiliate health care agencies to serve the Commonwealth and region
- UK is a cultural hub for arts engagement in the Commonwealth; through performances, exhibitions and educational programs, thousands are exposed to fine arts across the Commonwealth, region and world
- UK alumni see success too. A shining example of that success is Matt Cutts (A&S and Engineering 1995), a native of Morehead, Ky., who is one of Google's first 100 employees ever and was on the ground floor of what is today the world's largest search engine

OPEN UP A WORLD OF PROMISE

For more than 150 years, the University of Kentucky has served the people of the Commonwealth and our region. Through the education we provide, the creative research we conduct, and the care and service we render, we are the university for Kentucky -- the institution our Commonwealth has charged with asking and addressing the most penetrating questions confronting our state and her people, the vexations that challenge us in education, economic development, health care, and cultural and societal advance.

What does that commitment mean to you?

It means that from day one on our campus you can study with faculty who are leaders in their fields. You can walk 10 minutes in any direction and work with a world-class clinician, chemist, historian, poet, engineer, business specialist, and others. We hold fast to our first priority – the development of our students, the young men and women who come here with bright, uncompromising potential and who we expect to leave here ready to lead lives of leadership, meaning and purpose.

We have a deep sense of service, along with an uncommon position as both the state's flagship and land-grant institution. Strong linkages exist among graduate education, academic research and our clinical medical enterprise. Those partnerships have helped build a nationally respected medical center that increasingly provides access to advanced subspecialty care for those most in need across the state and region.

Together, our campus is at the forefront of creativity and discovery. UK is currently one of only 22 public institutions with a trifecta of federal designations of excellence – for aging, in cancer and with respect to translational science. We have been home or educational proving ground for Nobel Laureates and the National Book Award winner; state poet laureates and winners of the Pulitzer Prize. Our faculty members across disciplines are working in communities to improve cancer-screening rates; are using the latest computational science technology to unlock the treasures of the Dead Sea Scrolls in Paris; or are providing their skills to improve drinking water in Central and South America.

To support our work, the University is investing more than $1.7 billion in its academic, research, health care, athletic and community infrastructure, the vast majority of which is the result of private fund-raising efforts, public-private partnerships, and the support of university athletics. The physical transformation – combined with our traditional mission of service, discovery and teaching – has given us a sense of momentum and a renewed sense of purpose.

Our campus is the Commonwealth. Though we are in and of Lexington, we have a footprint through our extension network in all 120 Kentucky counties. Our health care enterprise partners with 170 clinical outreach practices reaching some 4,300 beds. The economic impact of our research exceeds $580 million, creates jobs, generates tax revenue and addresses the seemingly intractable challenges we face.

As an institution, collectively, we represent a powerful pairing of global reach, but enduring commitment to one state. We have a vision to be one of the handful of truly outstanding residential public research campuses in the United States, a special place that elevates a commonwealth and impacts a larger world beyond its borders.

WE INVITE YOU TO COME SEE BLUE WITH US!

The physical transformation of the UK campus features academic, research, health care, athletic and community infrastructure.

CITY OF LEXINGTON

Lexington is considered one of the best college towns in America.

In fact, the American Institute for Economic Research ranked Lexington the ninth best small metro college town in its 2013-14 survey. Livability.com agreed, ranking Lexington a Top 5 College Town.

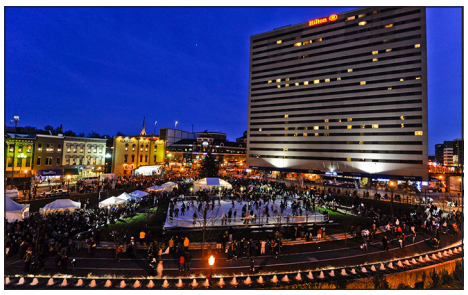

But what makes Lexington so great? Nestled in the heart of the Bluegrass, Lexington is a bustling, thriving city with Midwestern sensibilities and small-town Southern charm.

Lexington is within a day's drive of two-thirds of the U.S. population. Here, you will find a unique blend of rural aesthetics with cosmopolitan amenities. The heart of downtown is just a 10-minute walk from campus residence halls, while a 10-minute drive from campus leads you to acres of rolling hills, bluegrass and picturesque horse farms.

Lexington is clean, safe and home to dozens of local eateries, shops and stores that make up our city's unique vibe. Within a short walk or a quick ride on the COLT Trolley from campus, you will find dozens of top-notch restaurants, coffee shops, pizza places, live music venues, dance clubs, unique book stores and more.

W.B. Wendt on J.9, 1969 verified that State College (UK) opened the 1906 season against Kentucky U. (Transylvania) in the YMCA. Athletic committees of the two schools had canceled all games after a fight at a football game in November 1905. Wendt and the Kentucky U. manager agreed to play at the YMCA and list the State College foe as YMCA instead of Kentucky U. State College won but Mr. Wendt didn't remember the score, which he hadn't listed.

*As part of sanctions imposed upon the UK basketball program in 1989, the NCAA ordered Kentucky to erase from the record three NCAA tournament games from the 1987-88 season. Kentucky's 99-84 win over Southern, a 90-81 win over Maryland and an 80-74 loss to Villanova have been deleted from the records, thus changing the 1987-88 season record from 27-6 to 25-5.

The presidents of the Southeastern Conference institutions voted to strip Kentucky of the 1987-88 SEC regular season and SEC Tournament championships. Kentucky was not forced to forfeit any of those regular season or tournament games.

As part of sanctions imposed upon the UK basketball program in 1989, the NCAA ordered Kentucky to erase from the record three NCAA tournament games from the 1987-88 season. Kentucky's 99-84 win over Southern, a 90-81 win over Maryland and an 80-74 loss to Villanova have been deleted from the records.*
